SUNDAY WORSHIP 11:00 AM

November 1, 2015 23rd Sunday after Pentecost

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRELUDE "When the Saints Go Marching In"
Guest trumpeter Yuri Benjamin

INTROIT #383 "This is A Day of New Beginnings"

CALL TO WORSHIP

OPENING HYMN

#213 "Lift Up Your Heads, Ye Mighty Gates"

*OPENING PRAYER

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hidden. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

PASSING OF THE PEACE

*THE PASSING OF THE PEACE "Sweet, Sweet Spirit"

Let us offer one another signs of reconciliation and love.

There's a sweet, sweet Spirit in this place,

And I know that it's the Spirit of the Lord;

There are sweet expressions on each face,

And I know they feel the presence of the Lord.

Refrain: Sweet Holy Spirit, sweet heavenly Dove

Stay right here with us, filling us with your love;

And for these blessings we lift our hearts in praise;

Without a doubt we'll know that we have been revived;

When we shall leave this place.

ALL SAINTS DAY
LITANY OF REMEMBRANCE

We rejoice in the glory of God shining forth from all those who have gone before us.

We remember those from our church and the larger church who have entered the church triumphant:

Edwin Austin, Carl Davis, and Weslia Hynicka

We remember those who have stirred our imaginations:

Wes Craven,

We remember those who have brought joy and inspiration to our world:

BB King, Leonard Nimoy, Maureen O'Hara and Yogi Berra, Frank Gifford and Charlie Sifford

We remember those who have served our world:

Julian Bond, and Amelia Boyton-Robinson

We remember all those who have lost their lives to AIDS this year.

We remember with sorrow those who have lost their lives to violence this year: the 228 homicide victims in Philadelphia, the fallen heroes who fought and died for our country and the civilians who have died in Africa, Asia, the Middle East, and throughout the world.

CLAIMING OUR HOPE

SCRIPTURE READING

Margaret Harris

Ruth 1:1-18

Hebrews 9:11-14

CHORAL ANTHEM "Sweet Sweet Spirit" Doris Akers

GOSPEL Mark 12:28-34

SERMON "Testing" Reverend Robin Hynicka

RESPONSE TO THE WORD

I believe in God, Almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only child, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;

He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again;

He ascended into heaven, is seated at the right hand of God, and will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

HYMN #712

"I Sing A Song of the Saints of God"

CONFESSION AND PARDON

Merciful God,

We confess that we have not loved you with our whole heart.

We have failed to be an obedient church.

We have not done your will,

We have broken your law,

We have rebelled against your love,

We have not loved our neighbors,

and we have not heard the cry of the needy.

Forgive us, we pray.

Free us for joyful obedience, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

SILENT MEDITATION

Leader: Hear the good news:

Christ died for us while we were yet sinners;

That proves God's love toward us.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

People: In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

Leader and people: Glory to God. Amen.

OFFERING OF OUR TITHES AND GIFTS

As forgiven and reconciled people, let us offer ourselves and our gifts to God.

OFFERTORY HYMN

“Oh Shenandoah”

arr. Benjamin and Haines

*OFFERTORY RESPONSE #94

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;

Praise God, all creatures here below;

Alleluia, Alleluia!

Praise God, the source of all our gifts!

Praise Jesus Christ, whose power uplifts!

Praise the Spirit, Holy Spirit!

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

TAKING THE BREAD AND CUP

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The musical setting on pages 23-24

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to You, God Almighty, creator of heaven and earth. You formed us in your image, and breathed into us the breath of life. When we turned away, and our love failed, Your love remained steadfast. You delivered us from captivity, made covenant to be our sovereign God, and spoke to us through your prophets. And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is The One who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Holy are you, and blessed is your Son Jesus Christ.

Your Spirit anointed Jesus to preach good news to the poor, to proclaim release to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, and to announce that the time had come when you would save your people. Jesus healed the sick, fed the hungry, and ate with sinners.

By the baptism of his suffering, death and resurrection you gave birth to your church, delivered us from slavery to sin and death, and made with us a new covenant by water and the Spirit.

When the Lord Jesus ascended, he promised to be with us always, in the power of your Word and Holy Spirit.

On the night in which Jesus gave himself up for us, he took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you.

Do this in remembrance of me."

When the supper was over, Jesus took the cup, gave thanks to you, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Drink from this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here, and on these gifts of bread and wine. Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ, that we may be for the world the body of Christ, redeemed by his blood. By your Spirit, make us one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world, until Christ comes in final victory, and we feast at his heavenly banquet. Through your Child Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in your holy church, all honor and glory is yours, almighty God, now and forever. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

And now, with the confidence of children of God, let us pray:

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen.

BREAKING THE BREAD

Because there is one loaf,

We, who are many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf.

The bread which we break is a sharing in the body of Christ.

The cup over which we give thanks is a sharing in the blood of Christ.

GIVING THE BREAD AND CUP

The body of Christ, given for you. Amen.

The blood of Christ, given for you. Amen.

CLOSING PRAYER

Let us all pray:

Eternal God, we give you thanks for this holy mystery in which you have given yourself to us. Grant that we may go into the world in the strength of your Spirit, to give ourselves for others, In the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

SENDING FORTH

HYMN #711 "For All the Saints"

During the singing of the hymn, the congregation will form a circle of light in memory of all those saints who inform our lives and inspire our faithful witness in the world.*

DISMISSAL WITH BLESSING

Go forth in peace.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Amen.

POSTLUDE "Tocatta & Fugue d minor" Bach

WHAT'S HAPPENING

All Saints Sunday

Today we will celebrate All Saints Day. A special litany will name all of the ASUMC members and friends who have died since the observance of All Saints Day in 2014. In addition members of the community at large who have blessed our lives will be named and remembered. At the conclusion of the service the congregation will be asked to create a circle of hope and light in the sanctuary as a closing act of remembrance and honor for all of those whose life legacy we hold dear and plan to emulate.

Thanksgiving Service

We are planning our second Philadelphia Area Mission ConneXion Thanksgiving service. It will be held Tuesday, November 24th at Tindley Temple on 750 S. Broad St, Philadelphia, PA 19146. Gathering 6:30 and worship starting at 7PM. More details to follow.

PIE IN THE SKY

premier sponsor

Pat Taylor will be taking orders for pies to support Manna's Pie in the Sky. You can feel good about doing good. With every pie you buy, MANNA prepares and delivers seven nourishing meals to someone battling a life threatening illness such as cancer, HIV/AIDS, cardiac disease, and more. You can always order online at www.mannapies.org/buyflow/cart.cfm just enter Pat Taylor's name at the bottom under seller. Thanks.

Small Bible Study Groups

The Bible Study Groups will meet once a week for seven weeks. The basic format is centered on the passages of scripture used in Sunday worship; however each group is free to develop their own agenda and set of activities. The conveners will provide the space, time and support for folks to share what really matters. “What really matters to your heart?” is the leading question. Please join any one or all of the groups listed below.

Native American Sunday

Native American Sunday will be celebrated on November 15th this year. At both the 8:30 and 11:00 AM services, Barry Lee of Spirit Wing will speak on “Similarities and Differences between Native and Christian Beliefs.” Spirit Wing will also provide native music as Barry on guitar and his wife, Barbara Andrews-Christy, on native flute, sing and play “warm blended harmonies with a spiritual message.” Our delicious traditional Native American luncheon will be served in Nichols Hall following the 11:00 AM service.

United Methodist Men explore “The Hidden Spirituality of Men”

During the 2015-2016 seasons, the United Methodist Men will explore the lessons contained in the book The Hidden Spirituality of Men by Matthew Fox. The book explores the question: Why do men hide their deepest feelings and spiritual insights? Among the reasons discussed are the following:

- Many men carry wounds inside they would rather forget or put aside than admit are there.
- Men don’t know how — and are not trained — to deal with their anger and outrage in healthy ways.
- Men sometimes work so hard that they do not have time or space for exploring their hearts.

Pastor Robin will work closely with the United Methodist Men on this project. Please speak to Pastor Robin about getting a copy of the book.

Maternal and Child Health Discussion

Join UMW after the 11am service on Sunday Nov 8th to view a 35 min film on maternal child health. Today in the United States, a baby born in Baltimore, MD is more likely to die than a baby born in West Bank, Palestine. A young woman giving birth in the Bronx, NY is more likely to die than a woman giving birth in Syria or Iraq. Why does the United States have such high maternal and child mortality rates? What can UMW do to improve health outcomes? Join us to learn and act in your community

POWER says: Get out and VOTE November 3rd!!!

It may come as a surprise to learn just how important this November's Supreme Court races are in Pennsylvania.

With three seats up for grabs, the balance on the Court next year could vary anywhere from 5-2 Democratic to 5-2 Republican, depending on how the election goes. POWER is not endorsing any party or candidate. However, with all these seats up for grabs, we will have either a Democratic-led Supreme Court or a Republican-led Supreme Court deciding whether or not there will be: Mandatory full funding for the Philadelphia School District on a permanent, ongoing basis

- Redistricting of the Pennsylvania Legislature to overcome automatic rule by one political party
- Full use of the environmental Amendment to the Constitution in a way that limits fracking
- Acceptance of Philadelphia's power to enact its own minimum wage
- Affirmation of the right of Philadelphia to enact gun regulations
- Validation of a Philadelphia Public Bank that would let us take billions of City dollars out of Wall Street to invest in the City
- For information about the candidates, visit the League of Women Voters website at: <http://www.palwv.org/guide-for-voters-in-pennsylvania/>

Adult Sunday School

All those interested in reading, reflecting on and discussing the Bible passages used in each week's sermon are invited to meet in the Chapel every Sunday at 9:45am. The scripture readings for today's class are Ruth 3:1-5, 4:13-17, Hebrews 9:24-28, and Mark 12:38-The readings for NEXT week are: 1 Samuel 1:4-20, Hebrews 10:11-25, and Mark 12:28-34.

POWER's 2015 Fundraiser: "Education and Justice for All"

Join us on November 12th for a gala evening in support of POWER's Education Campaign. Our featured speaker will be public school champion and City Council candidate Helen Gym and we will honor the "Harrisburg 15"—Wilhelmina Young and the 7 other adults and 7 children who fasted for 10 days in Harrisburg for a moral budget for our schools. The event will take place from 5:30–7:30 PM at Penn's Landing Caterers, 1301 S. Christopher Columbus Blvd., Philadelphia. Tickets are $75 ($35 tax deductible) and can be ordered from Nancy Megley or online at powerphiladelphia.org/events. You can also support the fundraiser by becoming a sponsor, donating to the Silent Auction, or making a contribution to POWER. Contact Nancy Megley (nmegley@msn.com, 215-574-8320), Rev. Sandra Brown (brownsj@msn.com), or David Koppisch (dkoppisch@powerphiladelphia.org, 215-232-7697) for further information. Thank you for being part of this important work.

Green Economy Get-together:

On Saturday, November 7th from 4 to 6pm come out and join us at Serenity House to learn more about the visionary work of Serenity Soular- an initiative to connect North Philadelphia residents to jobs in the solar industry. This get-together will provide our supporters with a chance to learn more about the project, to ask questions, and to share suggestions. The event will also serve to wrap up our current crowdfunding campaign (<https://www.crowdrise.com/serenitysoular>). We will hold a pie auction at the event to collect donations. Participants are invited to bring a pie and/or money to contribute.

A Look at Our Faithfulness

Combined attendance for Sunday, October 25, 2015 was 92 and for Grace Café, 235. Your tithes, gifts and offerings help ASUMC make a difference in our community. Thank you.

Grace Café News

Grace Café offers dinner for our homeless friends this evening. After a brief period of faith-sharing this evening, those gathered will enjoy a home-cooked meal prepared by members of Emilie UMC. There are lots of openings for hosts to bring food and prepare a meal for about 200 people. If you know of a group that would like to assist in this important mission, please have them contact Deaconess Darlene DiDomineck at darlene.didomineck@gmail.com

Time to sign up for Health Insurance

We've talked a lot about what is covered by Obamacare plans. But you might be wondering why you should get covered.

There are lots of reasons to get covered, and everyone's situation is different. Here are a few things to consider:

1. Health insurance gives you and your family peace of mind.
2. Coverage protects your wallet from an unexpected illness or injury.
3. Plans must include free preventive care, which helps you stay healthy.
4. If you don't have coverage in 2016, you might get stuck with fine of $695 or more.

You can get covered and stay covered starting Sunday, November 1st. Learn more about why coverage matters now.

Serenity House Seeking Resident

Serenity House is seeking a resident interested in living in intentional and spiritual community, and serving and seeking justice and peace in the broader Philadelphia community. The new resident may have a focus outside the mission of Serenity House, but will also engage in Serenity House's projects in North Philadelphia.

The rent is $300/month, all inclusive. Serenity House is a community center and project of Arch Street United Methodist Church intended to maintain a presence of serenity on the corner of 12th and Lehigh and to build hope within the community. The House works with the neighborhood to support women's and men's support groups, a community garden, and various community-building events and programs. Serenity House is LGBTQ friendly. If interested, please contact Rev. Nikki Kelley Kleinberg at nikkikelleykleinberg@gmail.com.

HISTORY OF ALL SAINTS DAY

Secular culture and many Low Church traditions associate All Saints Day (November 1), also known as All Hallows (hallows = saints) or Hallowmas (mas = Mass), with Halloween (een=evening before or eve), All Hallows Eve (October 31). As a result, many tend to reject this Holy Day because of modern associations with witches, ghouls, the macabre, and a preoccupation with death that began to grow up around the Holy Day in the medieval period. Also, Protestants have generally tended to be uncomfortable with this day in its association in Roman Catholic tradition with the doctrine of Purgatory and praying for the dead.

All Souls Day began in the 3rd century to honor martyrs of the Christian Faith. By the 7th and 8th centuries it developed as a way to honor any of the saints of the Church who had attained the full status of heaven. During the early medieval period in the eleventh century, the following day, November 2, came to be observed as All Souls Day to remember those who had died but had not yet achieved the “beatific vision” of heaven, or who were still in Purgatory. This became a time to pray and intercede for these departed saints.

As with a lot of other excesses of the medieval period, these two days began to accrue a lot of popular mythology and became overlaid with layers of superstition. However, much of what concerns modern Christians actually developed in Ireland and England from pagan Celtic festivals and was imported into the United States by immigrants in the middle 19th century. It was not until the late 19th century that Halloween emerged in its modern Western version, which was then exported to other countries. It is this syncretism of Christianity with pagan beliefs in Halloween that lends a bad reputation to All Saints Day in Western Protestant thinking.

Yet beyond those issues, traditionally in the Church the two days of All Saints Day (November 1) and All Souls Day (November 2) were valued as times to celebrate heritage and those Christians of the past who faithfully transmitted the Faith to succeeding generations. Martin Luther actually chose All Saints Eve to send his 95 Theses to the Archbishop. His challenge to the Church and its leaders to reform was set against the background of the heritage of that Church. And even after the Reformation, both Lutheran and Anglican traditions retained the celebration of All Saints Day as a time to honor those who had been faithful.

Today, many Protestant churches combine the two traditional days into the observance of All Saints Day. However, the day focuses not only on honoring departed members of the Church and local congregations, but also those still living who have contributed to the work and ministry of the Church in significant ways. Since most years November 1 falls on a weekday and most Protestant churches do not have weekday services, usually the Sunday following November 1 is celebrated as All Saints Sunday (All Saints Day falls on a Sunday in 2009 and 2015). Some churches combine All Saints Day celebration with Reformation Sunday (last Sunday in October) as a way to focus on heritage.

ARCH STREET UMC VISION

Arch Street United Methodist Church will be a welcoming Christian community that inspires openness, understanding, healing and reconciliation both within the congregation and in the community-at-large.

ARCH STREET MISSION STATEMENT

Arch Street United Methodist Church's mission is to love God and neighbor by nurturing individuals on their spiritual journeys, encouraging creativity in faithful service, strengthening relationships and promoting justice.

GOD'S TABLE IS OPEN TO ALL.

THERE'S ROOM AT THE TABLE FOR YOU.

Arch Street United Methodist Church is a community of faith-keeping and faith-seeking people who embrace diversity in our congregation and community, and affirm the dignity and worth of every person as created in the image of God. We celebrate and give thanks for all of the gifts of God among us. Our welcome knows no boundaries, whether of age, racial or ethnic background, gender, sexual orientation or gender identity, economic or marital status, or physical or mental ability. We welcome all to share in the ministry, fellowship, and blessings of full participation as members of Christ's body.
