Native American Ministries

Today's special collection empowers local spiritual development and educates Native American seminary students to serve God faithfully. The United Methodist Native American Ministries Sunday offering also helps preserve a rich cultural heritage.

Hanging of the Greens

Next Sunday, November 22nd, just after the 11:00 service, come and help us decorate the Sanctuary for Christmas. Please plan on staying and helping as more hands make less work. So many of our youth are off at college so your assistance is greatly needed. Advent begins on November 29th and we want to be ready.

A Thanksgiving Celebration!

We are planning our second Philadelphia Area Mission ConneXion Thanksgiving service. It will be held Tuesday, November 24th at Tindley Temple on 750 S. Broad St, Philadelphia, PA 19146. Gathering 6:30 and worship starting at 7PM. Speakers include Rev. Myra Maxwell, Rev. Pearl Johnson, and Rev. Robert Johnson.

Cookies & Cocoa & Global Mission Fellows

Want to make a difference in the world, but don't know where to start? Curious about service opportunities for young adults? Come to Arch Street Church Wednesday, Dec. 2nd from 7 to 9 pm to learn about the Global Mission Fellows program over Christmas cookies and hot chocolate! Global Mission Fellows are 20-to-30-year-olds who spend two years living in community and working with global organizations that address global justice issues such as: human trafficking, worker's rights, collegiate ministry, youth and children, gender justice, immigration justice and many other issues. Global Mission Fellows is a program of the United Methodist General Board of Global Ministries. It is not necessary to be United Methodist to participate. Fellows receive a living stipend, health insurance and room and board. For more information about Global Mission Fellows or this event, contact Darlene DiDomineck at ddidomineck@epaumc.org

PCCY Is Heading to Harrisburg

What Happens When Work Stops Before the Job is Done?

This is the question posed by PCCY, Public Citizens for Children & Youth, a group concerned with issues affecting children in our region. They invite us to consider what happens if a doctor, police officer or teacher stop before a job is done, and then remind us that our state legislators did not give us a budget but are on a 2 week vacation. Here is what they say. So the state legislators are off the job with work left unfinished. Schools across the state are borrowing money and in jeopardy of closing their doors. Pre-K programs have to turn children away and staff is laid off. We need a budget that restores the cuts, increases funding and implements a fair funding formula. PCCY is organizing a bus trip to Harrisburg to meet with state legislators on Monday November 16th. They will provide free transportation, a brief training, materials, lunch, and schedule visits. If you are interested, sign up at pccy.org or contact Betsy Connor (215-232-7186).

Small Bible Study Groups

The Bible Study Groups will meet once a week for seven weeks. The basic format is centered on the passages of scripture used in Sunday worship; however each group is free to develop their own agenda and set of activities. The conveners will provide the space, time and support for folks to share what really matters. “What really matters to your heart?” is the leading question. Please join any one or all of the groups listed below.

United Methodist Men explore “The Hidden Spirituality of Men”

During the 2015-2016 seasons, the United Methodist Men will explore the lessons contained in the book The Hidden Spirituality of Men by Matthew Fox. The book explores the question: Why do men hide their deepest feelings and spiritual insights? Among the reasons discussed are the following:

- Many men carry wounds inside they would rather forget or put aside than admit are there.
- Men don't know how — and are not trained — to deal with their anger and outrage in healthy ways.
- Men sometimes work so hard that they do not have time or space for exploring their hearts.

Pastor Robin will work closely with the United Methodist Men on this project. Please speak to Pastor Robin about getting a copy of the book.

Sunday School

All those interested in reading, reflecting on and discussing the Bible passages used in each week's sermon are invited to meet in the Chapel every Sunday at 9:45am. The scripture readings for today's class are 2 Samuel 23:1-7, Revelation 1:4b-8, and John 18:33-37. The readings for NEXT week are Jeremiah 33:14-16, 1 Thessalonians 3:9-13, Luke 21:25-36.

Eliza Shirley Children's and Mom's Christmas Party

This year's event will be held Saturday, December 12th from 2 – 4pm. It's not too soon to get excited about the party we throw for our neighbors on Arch Street. For over a decade our church has helped make the holidays brighter for these families currently without a home of their own. If you would like to help with decorating, set up refreshments, donate home-baked cookies or cupcakes, stay for the party to join in the games (very riotous--led by Robin), and help Santa hand out presents, please contact Betsy Connor at betsyconnor@gmail.com or 215-232-7186

Serenity House Seeking Resident

Serenity House is seeking a resident interested in living in intentional and spiritual community, and serving and seeking justice and peace in the broader Philadelphia community. The new resident may have a focus outside the mission of Serenity House, but will also engage in Serenity House's projects in North Philadelphia. The rent is $300/month, all inclusive. Serenity House is a community center and project of Arch Street United Methodist Church intended to maintain a presence of serenity on the corner of 12th and Lehigh and to build hope within the community. The House works with the neighborhood to support women's and men's support groups, a community garden, and various community-building events and programs. Serenity House is LGBTQ friendly. If interested, please contact Rev. Nikki Kelley Kleinberg at nikkikelleykleinberg@gmail.com.

Grace Café News

Grace Café offers dinner for our homeless friends this evening. After a brief period of faith-sharing this evening, those gathered will enjoy a home-cooked meal prepared by Yardley UMC this evening. There are lots of openings for hosts to bring food and prepare a meal for about 200 people. If you know of a group that would like to assist in this important mission, please have them contact Deaconess Darlene DiDomineck at darlene.didomineck@gmail.com

Time to sign up for Health Insurance

We've talked a lot about what is covered by Obamacare plans. But you might be wondering why you should get covered.

There are lots of reasons to get covered, and everyone's situation is different. Here are a few things to consider:

- Health insurance gives you and your family peace of mind.
- Coverage protects your wallet from an unexpected illness or injury.
- Plans must include free preventive care, which helps you stay healthy.
- If you don't have coverage in 2016, you might get stuck with fine of $695 or more.

You can get covered and stay covered starting Sunday, November 1st.

Sanctuary One Year Later: Celebrating Angela's freedom, Fighting for freedom for all immigrants

On Thursday, November 19, one year after Angela Navarro entered Sanctuary at West Kensington Ministry and President Obama announced the stalled "Deferred Action" plan for immigrant parents, the New Sanctuary Movement community gathers to celebrate Angela's freedom and call for freedom for all immigrants. All are invited to join us for a community meal, action, and prayer to end all deportations and fight for immigrant justice. Thursday Nov. 19, 6:30pm - 8:30pm, West Kensington Ministry, 2140 N. Hancock St.
