OPENING PRAYER

LIGHTING OF THE THIRD ADVENT CANDLE

One: Rejoice in the Lord always!

All: Again we say, Rejoice!

Scripture Lesson : Isaiah 12:2-6

One: This is the Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

One: Salvation begins with love! “For God so loved the world “
Our Salvation means we are loved by God and filled with God’s grace. From God’s glorious riches, God’s saving love can change us; transforming our hearts, feelings, and our perception of life.
Salvation through God’s love produces joy and a life of praise! This Advent, our salvation is a continuing experience of God in us, dwelling in our hearts through faith in Christ Jesus.

One: God is my salvation! Christ is my salvation!

All: We rejoice in God’s saving love!

One: God has saved me! I will praise the Lord with all my soul

All: We will proclaim God’s glorious name in every place.

One: In mission, in life, and throughout all the world, I will sing a song of salvation.

All: Let us make this saving love known to all the world.

WHAT'S HAPPENING

Christmas Concert

Please join us next Sunday, December 20th at 1 PM for a concert of piano and cello, featuring our director of music Adam Haines and cellist Agnes Klein. The concert will include festive music as well as classical works. We ask that you bring a coat to donate, to help keep our members of Grace Cafe warm during the winter.

Small Bible Study Groups

The Bible Study Groups have been meeting since October and most have completed the 7 week series. However, each group is welcome to adapt or extend the schedule to meet their specific needs. For more information on each group, especially concerning the rest of 2015, please contact the group leaders:

Robin Hynicka - robin@archstreetumc.org

Sarah Herman and Jessica Strom - Sherman2@eastern.edu

Warren Cederholm & Don Caskey - gablesbb@outlook.com

Wilhelmina Young - Thecatalyst212@yahoo.com

Molly & Khoi Dang - molly.dang@hotmail.com

The Bible Study sessions for the Winter 2016 season are scheduled to begin the week of February 7, 2016 and continue through the week of March 20, 2016. The basic format is centered on the passages of scripture used in Sunday worship; however each group is free to develop their own agenda and set of activities. The conveners will provide the space, time and support for folks to share what really matters. "What really matters to your heart?" is the leading question.

United Methodist Women meet Today

The United Methodist Women will meet in the second floor conference room today immediately following the 11 am Worship Service. All are welcome!

Does your child stay with you during the service?

If you would like to keep your young child occupied during the service see one of the ushers. There are activity bags in the front and back of the sanctuary for young children who are staying with their parents.

Grace Café News

Grace Café offers dinner for our homeless friends this evening. After a brief period of faith-sharing this evening, those gathered will enjoy a home-cooked meal prepared by Danielle Dilleo Kim and Karen Flynn this evening. There are lots of openings for hosts to bring food and prepare a meal for about 200 people. If you know of a group that would like to assist in this important mission, please have them contact Deaconess Darlene DiDomineck at darlene.didomineck@gmail.com

Place a Chrismon on the Christmas tree and provide a gift of hope for a refugee

Throughout the world, the topic of discussion the past month has been who is going to accept refugee families to live in their midst. As usual we can feel proud that Arch Street Church has been ahead of the game. If you remember we were doing something about this for a few years now. It has been a topic of United Methodist Women book study, we have supported a refugee family living in a Philadelphia Church and we have been tuned into the topic in many a sermon. Last year's gift giving for Advent was for refugee families that are relocating to the Philadelphia area. We have even maintained a house for an immigrant family, which by the way was sold this year.

These refugees are men, women and children whose home countries are in situations that have forced them to leave due to violence, war, or persecution just because of their ethnicity, politics, or religion. Refugees are driven from their homes and communities by factors outside their control. Many have lived in refugee camps in a second country for a long time; the average time in refugee camps is 17 years. We've seen pictures of these as of late on the television news shows. The refugees cannot return to their home country because violence and persecution continues and even worsens daily. There are over 16 million refugees around the world. A few of the lucky ones are given the opportunity to build new lives in the United States, and each year hundreds arrive in Philadelphia and are resettled by the Nationalities Service Center. These people are not undocumented. They have been given permission to come to America by the U.S. State Department.

Usually they arrive with nothing but the clothes on their backs so often they are clothes not suitable Philadelphia's climate as they may come from the tropics or desert. They are given very little financial assistance and are expected to support themselves almost immediately. They even have to pay back the cost of the airfare from the refugee camp to America. Imagine arriving in a new country where you do not know the language or culture, where you have no friends or family, and you must go right out to find work in order to survive in this foreign land. We can make it a little easier on them this holiday season by providing a warm welcome to some of these brave and resilient newcomers.

The gifts will be distributed to the families by the staff at the Nationalities Service Center (NSC), our neighbor at 1216 Arch Street. Thank you to the many that have helped with the NSC Thanksgiving dinner headed up by our own Margaret Harris and lovingly prepared by Marge Donnelly. NSC is a nonprofit organization that has been helping immigrants and refugees since 1921. It has been Margaret Harris' great privilege to teach English as a Second Language classes there for over 25 years. NSC is the biggest refugee resettlement agency in the Delaware Valley. The staff of case managers has chosen items their refugee families most need.

As we celebrate the birth of Christ, we remember that Jesus himself was a refugee while still an infant, when his parents fled to Egypt to save his life. We certainly would not want to leave the holy family shunned and desolate. What if by chance there is a holy family among the refugees coming to our doorstep. "Whatever you have done to the least of these...you have done to me."

Please open your hearts this Advent to provide hope, joy and encouragement to the refugees in our midst, our new neighbors and friends If you would like to donate items and give hope to refugees please see Don or Warren today after service. To learn more about helping these families in many other ways, contact Margaret Harris through the church office. It promises to be a rewarding experience.

United Methodist Men explore “The Hidden Spirituality of Men”

During the 2015-2016 seasons, the United Methodist Men will explore the lessons contained in the book The Hidden Spirituality of Men by Matthew Fox. The book explores the question: Why do men hide their deepest feelings and spiritual insights? Among the reasons discussed are the following:

- Many men carry wounds inside they would rather forget or put aside than admit are there.
- Men don't know how — and are not trained — to deal with their anger and outrage in healthy ways.
- Men sometimes work so hard that they do not have time or space for exploring their hearts.

Pastor Robin will work closely with the United Methodist Men on this project. Please speak to Pastor Robin about getting a copy of the book. Meetings are the first Saturday of the month at 10AM.

A Look at Our Faithfulness

Combined attendance for Sunday, December 6, 2015 was 135 and for Grace Café, 212. Your tithes, gifts and offerings help ASUMC make a difference in our community. Thank you.

#BlackChurchesMatter GoFundMe Campaign

The inspiring and powerful witness made by the folks of the Emanuel AME Church in the face of tragedy at the hands of blatant racism has moved us to say loud and clear that #BlackChurchesMatter. Additionally, we need to say louder and clearer that Black Churches in the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference of the United Methodist Church matter. The Urban Commission and Metro Ministries of the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference have sponsored a GoFundMe campaign to support these churches and the work they do to spread a message of peace and racial equality in their communities. Giving Arch Street Church a Facelift

"many hands make light work"

A group of people is forming at Arch St, who enjoy working on cosmetic projects around our church. We would be in consultation with our amazing building supervisor, Frank Jones, and meet once or twice a month to work on a very focused cosmetic project. One project, done well, at a time. Interested? Contact: Marge Donnelly donnely_386@msn.com
