PRAISE AND WORSHIP SERVICE

December 20, 2015

Fourth Sunday of Advent

PRELUDE

OPENING STATEMENT

PRAISE SINGING "Joy to the World"
"Hark the Herald Angel Sing"
"O Come, O Come Emmanuel"

OPENING PRAYER

LIGHTING OF THE FOURTH ADVENT CANDLE

One: My soul magnifies the Lord!

All: And my Spirit rejoices in God my Savior!

Scripture Lesson : Micah 5:2-5a

One: This is the Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

One: On this last Sunday of Advent, we hear another prophetic passage. In the midst of God's judgment upon Judah and Israel because of their injustice toward the lowly, Micah proclaims the coming of the Messiah. He foretells that Bethlehem, an insignificant village, should be his birthplace. From this village, David, a young shepherd boy, grows up to become the most beloved king in Israel's history. And a descendant of that king fulfills God's long-awaited promises of deliverance, not just for Israel, but for the whole world! Come, Lord Jesus, come!

One: In the brokenness of our world today: torn with war, poverty, hunger and injustice,

All: Bring your restoration, O God, in us and through us.

One: Today we hear God's call to repent, to turn to the One who is our peace.

All: Come, "one of peace", and reign in our lives and world.

One: The future Micah looked forward to is a vision of God's restoration of the whole human family.

All: The advent of our Lord is at hand! We wait in anticipation and hope!

LIGHT THE FOURTH CANDLE

One: Come, Lord Jesus.

All: Come to brighten every corner of the world.

Small Bible Study Groups

The Bible Study Groups have been meeting since October and most have completed the 7 week series. However, each group is welcome to adapt or extend the schedule to meet their specific needs. For more information on each group, especially concerning the rest of 2015, please contact the group leaders:

Robin Hynicka - robin@archstreetumc.org

Sarah Herman and Jessica Strom - Sherman2@eastern.edu

Warren Cederholm & Don Caskey - gablesbb@outlook.com

Wilhelmina Young - Thecatalyst212@yahoo.com

Molly & Khoi Dang - molly.dang@hotmail.com

The Bible Study sessions for the Winter 2016 season are scheduled to begin the week of February 7, 2016 and continue through the week of March 20, 2016. The basic format is centered on the passages of scripture used in Sunday worship; however each group is free to develop their own agenda and set of activities. The conveners will provide the space, time and support for folks to share what really matters. "What really matters to your heart?" is the leading question.

Does your child stay with you during the service?

If you would like to keep your young child occupied during the service see one of the ushers. There are activity bags in the front and back of the sanctuary for young children who are staying with their parents.

Grace Café News

Grace Café offers dinner for our homeless friends this evening. After a brief period of faith-sharing this evening, those gathered will enjoy a home-cooked meal prepared by our own Arch Street members this evening. There are lots of openings for hosts to bring food and prepare a meal for about 200 people. If you know of a group that would like to assist in this important mission, please have them contact Deaconess Darlene DiDomineck at darlene.didomineck@gmail.com

We couldn't have done it without us!

Thanks to Santa and all his helpers whose imagination, energy, and generosity helped make this year's Christmas Party a success.

I know we made the season brighter for moms and children. I hope your season is bright too!

Love, Betsy

#BlackChurchesMatter GoFundMe Campaign

The inspiring and powerful witness made by the folks of the Emanuel AME Church in the face of tragedy at the hands of blatant racism has moved us to say loud and clear that #BlackChurchesMatter. Additionally, we need to say louder and clearer that Black Churches in the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference of the United Methodist Church matter. The Urban Commission and Metro Ministries of the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference have sponsored a GoFundMe campaign to support these churches and the work they do to spread a message of peace and racial equality in their communities. DONATE NOW.

Giving Arch Street Church a Facelift

"many hands make light work"

A group of people is forming at Arch St, who enjoy working on cosmetic projects around our church. We would be in consultation with our amazing building supervisor, Frank Jones, and meet once or twice a month to work on a very focused cosmetic project. One project, done well, at a time. Interested? Contact: Marge Donnelly donnely_386@msn.com

POWER Outage? Not At All.

So many of Arch Street Church's members have responded to the many calls for support over the last few years for Philadelphians Organized to Witness, Empower and Rebuild (POWER). You have made phone calls to voters and knocked on their doors, donated money, visited legislators in their offices in City Hall and in Harrisburg, showed up at rallies and marches, participated in religious services for racial justice, and walked in the largest MLK parade in the country (to name a few POWER actions).

If you have been wondering why your help hasn't been requested lately and have been thinking that the organization responsible for wage increases and real hope for public education is on vacation, you will be glad to know that POWER is in a very active process of reflecting and renewing. While so much has been done, and POWER is now a recognized force for moral justice in the city and state, we can do better.

With help from an outside contractor and input from hundreds of POWER members (including from our church) a top to bottom appraisal is underway. A new board structure is being implemented. We are taking a hard look at organizational issues of race and gender. A need for better communication in all aspects has been acknowledged.

Last week new city councilwoman Helen Gym was the featured speaker at POWER's annual fundraiser. Mayor-elect Jim Kenney was there too and said he expects us to keep up the pressure on him to stay on track on the issues that matter to us.

So while we are not pounding the pavements, calling, attending workshops and meetings as intensely as a few months ago, our work has not stopped and won't stop until Philadelphians are working, wages allow for a life of dignity, and our children are offered an education equal to that of children in wealthy suburbs.

Thank you for your past help and in advance for your future efforts. If you would like more information from select POWER committees, please contact Nancy Megley at 215-749-2392.
