WHAT'S HAPPENING

VOICES FOR JUSTICE

“Black Voices for Justice”

Dr. Anthony Monteiro is Today's Guest Speaker (Scholar/Organizer The Black Radical Tradition)

February 28, 2016 - The Reverend Gregory Holston
(New Vision UMC/President OIC America)

All of the speakers will speak at both the 8:30am and the 11:00am services and after each service there will be a time of light refreshment and facilitated dialogue. The dialogue will provide an opportunity for questions and comments related to the speakers' presentations and provide the sacred space for us to engage more deeply with the racial justice movement. Dr. Chanelle Rose from Rowan University or Cathy Simpson, Lay Leader at Arch Street United Methodist Church, will facilitate the dialogue sessions.

BLACK VOICES FOR JUSTICE

No doubt this series and the various speakers have stirred souls, raised questions; elicited deep emotions; caused concerns and challenged comfort levels. On Sunday, March 6, 2016 after the 8:30 and 11am services everyone is invited to process all of the above in an atmosphere of sacred conversation. Pastor Robin will lead a process and conversation that will provide the opportunity for forthright sharing. Issues and insights, thoughts and feelings, ideas and concerns shared will lead to greater understanding and personal and organizational growth. Please make it a priority to join this conversation.

CLUSTER/CONNEXION LENTEN BIBLE STUDY

On Wednesday, February 24, 2016 at 7pm the cluster of United Methodist Churches in North Philadelphia will visit with Arch Street and participate in the forum on “American Myths.” The Rev. Dr. David Krueger will present on this topic and engage us in ways to rethink and reinterpret history from a more authentic perspective. Please make a special effort to attend and get to know our United Methodist neighbors.

CONGREGATIONAL INVITATION TO CONVERSATION

ASUMC’S African Heritage Month celebration will include word, thought and deed, all delivered through conversations employing word, sound, rhythm, music and movement. The entire church community, made up of visitors and all those who for one reason or another find themselves in attendance at the 8:30 or 11:30 Sunday morning services—AND THIS MEANS YOU!!—February 21st is being resourced to assist in the creation of a movement poem. The poem will be presented during services on Sunday, February 21st and will represent in movement your inklings, ideas, sensations and sentiments in response to the following theme:

BLACK/ALL LIVES MATTER: BATTLING WHITE PRIVILEGE

At tables located at the narthex and chapel lobby exits, index cards and markers are provided for writing your responses and reactions to this theme, and can be expressed as action(s), emotion(s), or possibility (ties). The responses, all anonymous, can be single words and should be recorded as spontaneously as they come to you. This is one part of a growing and open conversation. All responses should be placed in the containers labelled “completed index cards”. Your responses will be the “raw material” used to shape this poem.

The scripture readings for today's class are Isaiah 55:1-9, 1Corinthians 10:1-13, and Luke 13:1-9. The readings for NEXT week are Joshua 5:9-12, 2Corinthians 5:16-21 and Luke 15:1-3, 11b-32.

UM Men's Meeting and Book Discussion

During the 2016 season, the United Methodist Men will explore the lessons contained in the book The Hidden Spirituality of Men by Matthew Fox. The book explores the question: Why do men hide their deepest feelings and spiritual insights? Among the reasons discussed are the following:

- Many men carry wounds inside they would rather forget or put aside than admit are there.
- Men don't know how — and are not trained — to deal with their anger and outrage in healthy ways.
- Men sometimes work so hard that they do not have time or space for exploring their hearts.

Please make arrangements to attend these informative and educational discussions.
