“Black Voices for Justice”

Bishop Dwayne Royster is Today’s Guest Speaker

As part of our African American Heritage month-long celebration, we are privileged to have Bishop Dwayne Royster as today’s guest speaker. Bishop Royster as many of you know is the Executive Director for POWER but Bishop Royster is also the founder and Pastor of Living Water United Church of Christ. Please welcome Bishop Royster today to Arch Street Church.

- February 14, 2016 Ms. Erica Mines
 (Organizer/Activist The Philly Coalition for Real Justice)
- February 21, 2016 Dr. Anthony Monteiro
 (Scholar/Organizer The Black Radical Tradition)
- February 28, 2016 The Reverend Gregory Holston
 (New Vision UMC/President OIC America)

All of the speakers will speak at both the 8:30am and the 11:00am services and after each service there will be a time of light refreshment and facilitated dialogue. The dialogue will provide an opportunity for questions and comments related to the speakers’ presentations and provide the sacred space for us to engage more deeply with the racial justice movement. Dr. Chanelle Rose from Rowan University and Cathy Simpson, Lay Leader at Arch Street United Methodist Church, will facilitate the dialogue sessions.

The basic format is centered on the passages of scripture used in Sunday worship; however each group is free to develop their own agenda and set of activities. The conveners will provide the space, time and support for folks to share what really matters. “What really matters to your heart?” is the leading question.

UM Men’s Meeting and Book Discussion

During the 2016 season, the United Methodist Men will explore the lessons contained in the book The Hidden Spirituality of Men by Matthew Fox. The book explores the question: Why do men hide their deepest feelings and spiritual insights? Among the reasons discussed are the following:

- Many men carry wounds inside they would rather forget or put aside than admit are there.
- Men don’t know how — and are not trained — to deal with their anger and outrage in healthy ways.
- Men sometimes work so hard that they do not have time or space for exploring their hearts.

Please make arrangements to attend these informative and educational discussions.
