WHAT'S HAPPENING

Robin presented with the 2016 Mary Magdalene Award

The Southeastern PA Women's Ordination Conference unanimously selected Pastor Robin to receive the 2016 Mary Magdalene Award. The award was presented on Holy Thursday in Sister Cities Park during the organization's annual Holy Thursday prayer vigil. The group cited Pastor Robin's commitment to the Catholic LGBT community during the Pope's visit, his fight for justice in general and his support for Women's Ordination in the Roman Catholic Church as reasons for their decision. Several members of the congregation were on hand to witness the award presentation.

Serenity Soular Community Forum

Serenity Soular is a collaborative project between Serenity House (Arch Street UMC's North Philadelphia ministry) and Swarthmore College students to spread sustainable energy and build the green economy in North Philadelphia. Come learn more about Serenity Soular at this Community Forum in the chapel at Arch Street UMC on Wednesday, March 30th from 6:00 PM to 7:30 PM. A light supper will be provided.

Community Forum

Was the U.S. Founded as a Christian Nation?

Wednesday, April 13th from 7:00 PM to 8:30 PM

Politicians often say they want to "reclaim" or "restore" America. This usually means they are calling for a return to the nation's Christian's origins. But was the U.S. founded as a Christian nation? If it was, can the U.S. be understood as a Christian nation today given its diversity? In the third Community Forum in our American Myths series, historian John Fea will help us take a careful look at the history of Christian-nation debates and help us to see past the emotional rhetoric of today to the recorded facts of our past.

Wisdom's Feast Book Event

There will be a book-signing party for the 3rd edition of Wisdom's Feast, co-written by Susan Cole, Marian Ronan, and Hal Taussig, on Saturday, April 9th at 2:00 in the Arch Street UMC Chapel. The congregation is invited to celebrate this event. The book was originally published in 1989, and served as a backdrop to some of the early days of Rev. Cole's pastorate at Arch Street UMC,

Grace Café

Grace Café (ASUMC's outreach to folks currently without homes) will be open every Sunday until June 26, 2016. After a brief period of faith-sharing this evening, those gathered will enjoy a home-cooked meal prepared by folks here at Arch Street. There are still openings in the Spring for hosts to bring food and prepare a meal for about 200 people. If you know of a group that would like to assist in this important mission, please have them contact the church office at 215-568-6250 or Darlene DiDomineck at ddidomineck@epaumc.org. Greeters, servers and clean-up crew are needed and always welcome.

2016 Calendar of Events

The book discussion of I am Malala; the Girl Who Stood Up for Education and Was Shot by the Taliban by Malala Yousafzai and Christina Lamb, which was originally scheduled for March 13, has been rescheduled for Sunday April 3rd. The discussion will take place in the 2nd floor conference room immediately following the 11 am Worship Service. All are welcome!

Sunday, April 10: UMW Meeting

Sunday May 1: (We are meeting a week early to avoid Mother's Day) and General Conference (which is May 10-20 in Portland, Oregon).

Book discussion of Just Mercy: a story of justice and redemption by Bryan Stevenson. (UMW Reading Program category Social Action).

Sunday June 5th: This is a week early to avoid the annual Pride March. Book discussion of Dreamers: An immigrant generation's fight for their American Dream by Ellen Truax.

In the summer we will have a potluck supper and then in September we will resume with a book discussion of The Underground Girls of Kabul.

UM Men's Breakfast and Meeting

On Saturday, April 2, 2016 at 10am the United Methodist Men will hold a Men's Day breakfast and meeting at Arch Street. All men are welcome to come out and fellowship with us.

Please come and see our Cathy Simpson in the play "A Fierce Kind of Love"

Go see Arch Street's own star of stage and screen, the fabulous Cathy Simpson, in her latest play, A Fierce Kind of Love, on Thursday April 14th. The performance is at 7 pm at Christ Church Neighborhood House, 20 N. American Street (just north of Market Street between 2nd and 3rd Streets). Tickets are $10 or what you can pay.

A Fierce Kind of Love is a collage of stories—large and intimate—of Pennsylvania's Intellectual Disabilities' Rights Movement. Through words, movement and song, the play explores a remarkable (and largely untold) history and celebrates the activism and fierce love that fuel the desire for dignity. Written by Obie-nominated Suli Holum, directed by David Bradley, and produced by the Institute on Disabilities at Temple University, A Fierce Kind of Love is for anyone who has ever wanted to be accepted, heard, or loved for who they are.

A Fierce Kind of Love is performed by a mixed ability cast. All performances are ASL interpreted and CART captioned. Audio description available upon request.

Margaret Harris has bought 25 tickets for Arch Street to attend on April 14th. They are going fast. I have already sold 15 of them. Please see her, call her or email her if you would like to buy one.

Sunday School

All those interested in reading, reflecting on and discussing the Bible passages used in each week's sermon are invited to meet in the Chapel every Sunday at 9:45am. The scripture readings for today's class are Acts 5:27-32, Revelation 1:4-8, and John 20:19-31. The readings for NEXT week are. Acts 9:1-6 (7-20), Revelation 5:11-14, and John 21:1-19.

POWER

A few weeks ago we reported on a temporary lull in POWER actions as part of a reflection and renewal process. As evidence that the lull is over, please see the following list of dates of planned actions around POWER's goals of Economic Dignity, LiveFree (addressing mass incarceration), and quality education for all Pennsylvania's school children.

Please consider which events you can make time for. High numbers of participants are important in drawing attention to our causes and changing the minds of our leaders and legislators!

April 12, evening: Location and exact time to be determined. The next POWER quarterly meeting (the last one was held at Arch Street in January and several hundreds attended, including Mayor Kenney). This meeting keeps us all up-to-date on POWER and gets us refocused on doing God's work.

April 13, all day: Come with us to Harrisburg immediately before tax day to ask "We pay our taxes, why don't you fund our schools?" and to say "Taxes are due now, a budget was due 9 months ago!". Sound like good signs to hold up outside the state capitol building? Let's do it! Transportation provided.

April 14, daytime: exact time and location to be determined-activities from City Hall up N. Broad St. Be part of a nation-wide action with POWER and other groups demanding a living wage.

May 10, time and location to be determined: A chance for education and action on Green Jobs in Philadelphia.

May 19, Philadelphia Community College, 9 AM to 7 PM: POWER needs at least 100 people to help at this major event. We will coordinate the Poverty Summit to look at Philadelphia solutions for Philadelphia's poverty.

Please watch this space for more information as to times, locations, logistics. If you have any questions please contact Pastor Robin, Betsy Connor at 215-232-7186, or Nancy Megley.

We welcome and need your willingness to "pray with your feet".

Central District Clergy and Missionaries serving in Cross Racial/Cross Cultural Appointments!

We are hosting a part two to the CR/CC appointment training that was held last October and would love for you to join us! You do not need to have attended the training in October, however, this event will build on topics discussed during the October training. If you are interested in serving as an Intercultural Conversations Trainer for the Eastern Pennsylvania Annual Conference then this training is also for you!

The Annual Conference will cover the cost of clergy, missionaries and up to 3 members of your congregation to join you. Additional participants are $10 per person. The training will take place on Saturday, April 23rd from 9AM-4PM at Royersford UMC (380 Church St, Royersford, PA 19468).

Space is limited so, please register by April 10, 2016. The registration link is: <https://epaumc.churchcenteronline.com/registrations/events/19946>

A Look at Our Faithfulness

Combined attendance for Sunday, March 20, 2016 was 185 and for Grace Café 240. Your tithes, gifts and offerings help ASUMC make a difference in our community. Thank you.

ARCH STREET UMC VISION

Arch Street United Methodist Church will be a welcoming Christian community that inspires openness, understanding, healing and reconciliation both within the congregation and in the community-at-large.

ARCH STREET MISSION STATEMENT

Arch Street United Methodist Church's mission is to love God and neighbor by nurturing individuals on their spiritual journeys, encouraging creativity in faithful service, strengthening relationships and promoting justice.

GOD'S TABLE IS OPEN TO ALL.

THERE'S ROOM AT THE TABLE FOR YOU.

Arch Street United Methodist Church is a community of faith-keeping and faith-seeking people who embrace diversity in our congregation and community, and affirm the dignity and worth of every person as created in the image of God. We celebrate and give thanks for all of the gifts of God among us. Our welcome knows no boundaries, whether of age, racial or ethnic background, gender, sexual orientation or gender identity, economic or marital status, or physical or mental ability. We welcome all to share in the ministry, fellowship, and blessings of full participation as members of Christ's body.
