Why United Methodist General Conference?

History and highlights

Every four years, The United Methodist Church convenes at General Conference. May 10-20, 864 delegates elected by their annual conferences—half of them clergy and half laity—will gather in Portland, Oregon, for the latest conference. They will consider more than 1,000 petitions that will order the work of our churches, pastors, and agencies, and set official positions on a variety of subjects.

Our history

John Wesley first called Methodist preachers together in 1744 for a conference in London. When the Methodist movement spread to America, the preachers gathered there for the first time in Philadelphia in 1773.

During the Revolutionary War between England and the American colonies, many Anglican pastors returned home to England, causing a clergy shortage in the new nation. When the Methodists gathered for the Christmas Conference in 1784, they formed a new church, The Methodist Episcopal Church.

The Methodist Episcopal Church preachers would continue to gather in conferences where they published the first Book of Discipline in 1785, and adopted their first constitution in 1808. In 1792, they decided to meet every four years, a practice we continue today!

Jacob Albright set out to spread Methodism to the German-speaking people of Pennsylvania. In 1803, those Methodist class meetings met in a conference where they ordained Albright to lead them. In the years that followed, they would name themselves the Evangelical Association, and would continue to hold conferences to lead the new church.

At about the same time, another group of German-speaking Pennsylvanians gathered under the leadership of William Otterbein and Martin Boehm. At their conference in 1800 they ordained bishops and organized themselves into a new church called Church of the United Brethren in Christ, and agreed to meet in annual “General Conferences.” Soon they would also move to a quadrennial (once every four years) cycle. The Evangelical Association and United Brethren in Christ would form the Evangelical United Brethren in 1946. Then in 1968, they would join with The Methodist Church—formed through a series of splits and unions of The Methodist Episcopal Church—to become The United Methodist Church.

General Conference highlights

Through the years, Methodists have met in General Conferences to make decisions about the life of the church, and to take stands on social issues.

Sometimes we have been a leading voice. Other times we have been a bit slower in our decision-making.

Abolishment of slavery: Slavery was a social topic discussed by The Methodist Episcopal Church almost from the very beginning. At General Conference of 1800, The Methodist Episcopal Church issued a pastoral letter on abolishing slavery, and passed legislation further reinforcing their rules that no Methodist preacher should be a slaveholder or slave trader. Slavery wouldn't be abolished in the United States until 1865.

Women clergy: Though the church had appointed women to serve as class leaders from the time of John Wesley, and ordained women as early as 1866, it wasn't until General Conference of 1956 that women received full clergy rights in The Methodist Church.

Education: UM bishops from Africa dreamed of a university that would educate young people from all over Africa. They brought the idea before the 1988 General Conference where it was overwhelmingly accepted, and Africa University (AU) was established. AU, the first private university in Zimbabwe, has graduated more than 4,000 students.

Global health: The 2008 General Conference showed the commitment of The UMC to global health with the establishment of Imagine No Malaria. Nearly $75 million have been raised and used to purchase mosquito nets, fund health facilities, train medical providers, and so much more. At General Conference 2016, we will celebrate the culmination of the Imagine No Malaria campaign, even as we continue to work toward improving the health of all the world's people.

Where is God calling us to go from here?

The theme of General Conference 2016 is "Therefore go..." These words begin Jesus' commission to us his followers: "Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age" (Matthew 28:19-20 CEB).

As we become a more global church with congregations in Africa, Asia, Europe, and North America, we continue to discern how God is calling us to be the church in all nations. General Conference 2016 will consider legislation to make The Book of Discipline more global, and in 2020 will consider a more global Social Principles. Then in 2024, General Conference of The United Methodist Church will meet in Manila, the capital of the Philippines. This will be the first General Conference to meet outside of the United States. ## Trans-Health Conference: Volunteers Needed

Arch Street UMC is organizing volunteers to staff the Reconciling United Methodists' table at the Trans-Health Conference which is scheduled to be held at the Pennsylvania Convention Center from June 9 – 11, 2016. Visit the conference website - mazzonicenter.org/trans-health - to learn more about the mission and schedule for the conference. In order to demonstrate the commitment on the part of the Reconciling Congregations to the full inclusion of LGBTQ persons in the life of the church, a welcome table will be on display at the conference. Flowers, candy, brochures, pictures and a banner will provide visual interest but what is really needed is the personal touch. Pairs of volunteers are needed to take 3 ½ hour shifts staffing the table each of the three days of the conference. The approximate timing would be 8:30am to 12noon; 12noon to 3:30pm; and 3:30pm to 7pm. The first 3 ½ hour period on Thursday is covered but all of the other time slots need volunteers. Please contact secretary@archstreetumc.org to sign up for a time slot. A volunteer information sheet will be shared with each volunteer.

What's going on in the Serenity House Neighborhood?

The People's Garden is a place for neighbors of all ages to play, rest, grow and harvest fresh fruits and vegetables, organize, learn, and build community. Over the past year, North Philly neighbors, Serenity House, and other community members have been collaborating and organizing to transform a vacant lot into a community garden. We dream of a garden where neighbors could find nutritious food in the midst of a food desert, peace and safety in the midst of a city fraught with violence, and local pride and self-determination in a neighborhood threatened by disinvestment and displacement. Please support this ministry by going to: www.crowdrise.com/archstunitedmethodistchurc which will help the purchase of seeds, seedlings, soil, tools, a rainwater collection system, food and supplies for work days, tuition for gardening education, and transportation of supplies. After you donate, please sign up for occasional email updates at: goo.gl/pnPJ87 and come visit The People's Garden to see how you've helped our plants and our community flourish!

POWER

POWER Meetings and Actions in May

POWER furthers the causes of economic justice and good public education in several ways this month and in June. Please join us for any or all of the day-long Poverty Summit on May 19, at Voter Registration Training on May 26, and on an Arch Street Church trip to join POWER in Harrisburg on June 14 (or any other Tuesday from now through June 28). Details are below. Please contact Betsy Connor at 215-232-7186 or Nancy Megley at 215-574-8320.

Thursday May 19, The Poverty Summit—“Finding Philly Solutions to Philly Poverty”: This all-day conference will shine a spotlight on the problems of deep poverty in our city and call for bold and creative solutions. The summit will take place from 8:00 AM–4:00 PM at Community College of Philadelphia, 1700 Spring Garden Street. Visit <http://powerinterfaith.org/> to learn more and to register to attend.

Thursday May 26 from 6:30 to 9:00 PM (location TBD—please watch this space or call Betsy or Nancy)

Voter Engagement Training for Philadelphia Team Leads will be held. More information is coming soon. We will be focusing on voter registration. Reports from other congregations are that this is not nearly as labor intensive as our past Get Out The Vote phone banking and door-knocking has been. Our goal will be to register all of our church members and hold some community events to register new voters.

May 3–June 28: “Tabernacle Tuesdays”

Every Tuesday from May 3 to June 28, POWER members will gather in Harrisburg for prophetic witness and action to call on the General Assembly (1) to pass a budget that provides for $400 million in new education funding, (2) to be distributed fairly according to the Basic Education Funding Commission formula, and (3) an ontime budget. Pastor Robin and several of us are planning to go to the June 14 Tabernacle Tuesday. Lunch will be provided. Please let us know if you can go and if you need or can provide transportation.

A Look at Our Faithfulness

Combined attendance for Mother’s Day Sunday, May 8, 2016 was 104, and for Grace Café 198. Your tithes, gifts and offerings help ASUMC make a difference in our community. Thank you.

2016 Calendar of Events

Sunday May 15: (We are meeting a week LATE to avoid Mother's Day). What's the book about?

A powerful true story about the potential for mercy to redeem us, and a clarion call to fix our broken system of justice—from one of the most brilliant and influential lawyers of our time.

Bryan Stevenson was a young lawyer when he founded the Equal Justice Initiative, a legal practice dedicated to defending those most desperate and in need: the poor, the wrongly condemned, and women and children trapped in the farthest reaches of our criminal justice system. One of his first cases was that of Walter McMillian, a young man who was sentenced to die for a notorious murder he insisted he didn't commit. The case drew Bryan into a tangle of conspiracy, political machinations, and legal brinkmanship—and transformed his understanding of mercy and justice forever.

JUST MERCY is at once an unforgettable account of an idealistic, gifted young lawyer's coming of age, a moving window into the lives of those he has defended, and an inspiring argument for compassion in the pursuit of justice.

Sunday June 5th: This is a week early to avoid the annual Gay Pride Day Parade. No book discussion.

Friday, June 24th: UMW Annual Potluck at Margaret's, 6PM All women of the church are welcome. Call or email Margaret (215-568-2206 or margaretharris@me.com) with any questions.

NO meeting in July

Sunday, August 7th: Book discussion of Dreamers: An immigrant generation's fight for their American Dream by Ellen Truax.

UM Men's Meeting and Book Discussion

During the 2016 season, the United Methodist Men will explore the lessons contained in the book The Hidden Spirituality of Men by Matthew Fox. The book explores the question: Why do men hide their deepest feelings and spiritual insights? Among the reasons discussed are the following:

- Many men carry wounds inside they would rather forget or put aside than admit are there.
- Men don't know how — and are not trained — to deal with their anger and outrage in healthy ways.
- Men sometimes work so hard that they do not have time or space for exploring their hearts.

The United Methodist Men meet on the first Saturday of the month at 10AM for breakfast in Nichols Hall. Please make arrangements to attend these informative and educational discussions.

Take me out to the ballgame...

Want a great place to spend a warm, cozy mid-July night, with just the right mix of laid-back calm and moments of competitive drama and excitement? A fun place to hang with family, friends and fellow church members, where you can all get your cheer on? How about a Phillies ballgame at Citizens Bank Park on Methodist Night?

Join hundreds of Eastern PA folks from across our conference at the ballpark to root for the home team on Saturday, July 16, at 7:05 p.m. Come see the Philadelphia Phillies play (and yes, beat) the New York Mets. The conference United Methodist Men have once again arranged for us to buy discounted tickets, with $10 of each ticket we buy supporting their men's ministries.

Ticket prices range from $20 to $38. Check out our "Methodist Night" Webpage at www.phillies.com/methodist. To order your tickets, click on the green "T" icon and enter the promotion code METHODIST. Place your order now! Tickets are subject to availability.

EPAUMC Cabinet proposes redistricting in 6 town hall meetings

Bishop Peggy Johnson, with her Cabinet and staff, completed scheduled town hall meetings in all six districts in April to present their proposal to reduce the conference's six districts to four. And while the proposal's primary objective is to reduce costs in the face of shrinking resources, it offers ideas for enhancing ministry as well.

Bishop Johnson prefaced her presentation with highlights of ministries across the conference worth celebrating and then offered her rationale for redistricting. She shared extensive information that, despite the vibrancy of our ministries, showed our decline in the number of churches, local church membership and connectional finances. While several solutions were considered, the best long-term solution offered was the reduction in districts. Learn more...

Peace with Justice Sunday is coming May 22

The Peace with Justice Sunday offering supports deserving ministries across the U.S. and around the world. But each annual conference may retain one-half of its offering to provide grants to local applicants who strive to achieve at least one of the following objectives:

- Assist United Methodists in understanding and responding to violence and militarism;
- Involve United Methodists in efforts to end global conflicts and violent aggression;
- Promote just national and international policies and actions seeking to restore communities and respond to the disproportionate effect of injustices on racial and ethnic people; and
- Support policies that promote systematic economic justice and the self-development of peoples.

On Peace with Justice Sunday and everyday may we search for peace. May we hear and respond to cries for justice. And may we actively pursue Christ's ministry of reconciliation.
