WHAT'S HAPPENING

Nichols Hall Mural Cleaning Day!

Nichols Hall is getting a makeover! The first step in preparing our fellowship/dining/multipurpose room to be painted with a beautiful new mural is cleaning! Be a part of the transformation by joining us Saturday, July 16 at 10 AM to help scrub down the walls. We'll share a lunch of pizza once we've worked up an appetite.

Take me out to the ballgame...

Want a great place to spend a warm, cozy mid-July night, with just the right mix of laid-back calm and moments of competitive drama and excitement? A fun place to hang with family, friends and fellow church members, where you can all get your cheer on? How about a Phillies ballgame at Citizens Bank Park on Methodist Night?

Join hundreds of Eastern PA folks from across our conference at the ballpark to root for the home team on Saturday, July 16, at 7:05 p.m. Come see the Philadelphia Phillies play (and yes, beat) the New York Mets. The conference United Methodist Men have once again arranged for us to buy discounted tickets, with $10 of each ticket we buy supporting their men's ministries.

Ticket prices range from $20 to $38. Check out our "Methodist Night" Webpage at www.phillies.com/methodist. To order your tickets, click on the green "T" icon and enter the promotion code METHODIST. Place your order now! Tickets are subject to availability.

Pre-DNC "Know Your Rights" Trainings

Saturday, July 16, 2 to 4:45 PM (with presentation by Firefly Action Medical), Wednesday, July 20, 6:30 to 8:30 PM and July 23 (see below).

Up Against the Law will conduct three trainings leading up to the DNC Freedom School. DNC protesters and protest supporters will learn to safely navigate the legal aspects of protesting in Philadelphia. These trainings will have the same content, though only July 16th will include presentations by Firefly Action Medical.

DNC Freedom School

Saturday, July 23, 9 AM to 9 PM

Arch Street will be hosting a day-long Freedom School for those preparing to protest at the Democratic National Convention, along with protest supporters and trainers, in the spirit and truth of the 1964 Mississippi Freedom Schools. The DNC Freedom School will include “Know Your Rights” training from Up Against the Law Legal Collective, other peaceful, non-violent protest training and support services mentioned above, and more. Civil Rights era veteran and still-relevant voice for justice, the Reverend Gil Caldwell who participated in the Summer of Freedom’s Freedom Schools, the March on Washington, the Selma to Montgomery March and the Poor People’s Campaign will screen a key portion of his documentary film entitled “From Selma to Stonewall – Are We There Yet?.” Reverend Caldwell and his son Dale, who is active in creating an Economic Justice Movement for the 21st century that builds on the aims of both the March on Washington and the Poor People’s Campaign, will convene a conversation on justice – movement intersectionality in the context of their experience in the Civil Rights movement. Mark Miller and Lydia Munoz, nationally known sacred and social justice musicians will share music from Mark’s most recent book: Roll Down Justice: Sacred Songs and Social Justice.

Join Arch Street's Immigration Team

Arch Street UMC is a congregational member of the New Sanctuary Movement (NSM), an interfaith movement which works to end injustices against immigrants regardless of immigration status, express radical welcome for all, and ensure that values of dignity, justice, and hospitality are lived out in practice and upheld in policy. We accompany people who are facing deportation and hold workshops to provide information about rights. In the past, NSM worked successfully to make Philadelphia a Sanctuary City. Now NSM is working to make Driver's Licenses available to all, regardless of immigration status. We are working to stop the deportation raids. Recently the Obama Administration announced a new round of deportation raids targeting Central American refugee families. We are working to ensure all our immigrant members know what to do in case of a raid and we have organized teams to take action when we learn of a raid. NSM has an emergency hotline to call if you see an ICE (Immigration and Customs Enforcement agency) raid taking place.

In case of a raid, call NSM's emergency hotline number:
267-333-9530

Teams of NSM Congregational members have been organized to respond to reported raids.

- A phone tree will start to notify everyone signed up to respond. After the closest congregations are called, we will then call other congregations
- The team will immediately head to the site of the raid
- One person on the team will call others on the phone tree
- The team will gather on the block of the raid.
- The team will hold a vigil - songs, prayer, and any other practice that is meaningful to the congregation.
- The group will take photos and film the raid and NSM staff will call press. We will stay until ICE leaves
- After, we will talk with the family to provide guidance on next steps, talk about accompaniment and be a support for the
- Each team will have a response kit – an NSM banner, signs, an agenda, NSM business cards, and a guide for press. Members should wear NSM t-shirts and make sure the signs are visible. ICE officers are sometimes dressed in street clothes so we want to make sure the family knows we are supporters and not ICE.

New Sanctuary Movement holds a General Assembly every other month to provide information about our campaigns and to make plans to implement our goals. You are invited to the Next General Assembly on Sunday June 5, 3pm at Holy Innocents Parish, 1337 Hunting Park Av. Please contact Margaret Harris (margaretharris@me.com or 215-568-2206) for more information or if you would like to be involved in this work for immigrant justice.
