Join us for Book Discussion today Everyone is welcome!

Sunday October 2: Join us for discussion of Dreamers

We invite everyone to join us for a discussion of the book, Dreamers: An immigrant generation's fight for their American dream by Eileen Truax. We will meet in the 2nd floor conference room immediately following the 11 Worship Service

Dreamers is a movement book for the generation brought to the United States as children—and now fighting to live here legally

Of the approximately twelve million undocumented immigrants living in the United States, as many as two million came as children. They grow up here, going to elementary, middle, and high school, and then the country they call home won't—in most states—offer financial aid for college and they're unable to be legally employed. In 2001, US senator Dick Durbin introduced the DREAM Act to Congress, an initiative that would allow these young people to become legal residents if they met certain requirements. And now, more than ten years later, in the face of congressional inertia and furious opposition from some, the DREAM Act has yet to be passed. But recently, this young generation has begun organizing, and with their rallying cry “Undocumented, Unapologetic, and Unafraid” they are the newest face of the human rights movement. In Dreamers, Eileen Truax illuminates the stories of these men and women who are living proof of a complex and sometimes hidden political reality that calls into question what it truly means to be American.

“Compelling, honest, and personal, this is a must-read for anyone interested in the immigration debate.”

—Booklist

“A forthright, moving piece of advocacy journalism.”

—Kirkus Reviews

“Truax succeeds in conveying how a shadow status permeates the lives of all the young people profiled here, with education, employment opportunities, and essential social services severely limited or unavailable.”

—Publishers Weekly

“Truax’s informative, engaging read provides a new perspective on this country’s ongoing immigration debate.”

—Library Journal

About the Author

She contributes regularly to Hoy Los Angeles and Unidos and writes for Latin American publications including Proceso, El Universal, and Gatopardo. There is Still Time to Register to Vote on Nov. 8!

Pastor Robin said a few weeks ago--" I don't usually insist, but I really really want you all to vote on Nov. 8!".

If you are unsure...

- if you are registered to vote
- whether you need to update your registration with a new address
- where your polling place is

...you can check at www.votespa.com or contact Nancy Megley at 215-574-8320 or nmegley@msn.com.

You might not know that being registered to vote DOES NOT put you on the jury list. That practice ended years ago. Please exercise this very important American right.

We Will Be Registering Voters at Grace Cafe Tonight Please Come at 5:00 to Help Us!

On Sunday Oct. 2 we will offer our Grace Cafe guests a chance to register to vote. We will sit at a table in the chapel and be available to any who want to register. Please join us there at 5:00 PM for a quick training and to get your forms and have your questions answered. You will be joining experienced volunteers from Arch Street.

We should be done by 7. If you haven't helped get out the vote this election season, this may be your final chance.

Contact Nancy Megley or just show up. We will be glad to see you.

Lupus Conference a Great Success!

The Lupus conference, which was held on September 17, 2016 was not only an extremely informative event but also allowed Arch Street to give a generous donation to the Lupus Foundation and create a scholarship fund for Arch Street students that need assistance. Many thanks to Virginia Brown, Betsy Connor, Pat Taylor, Joe Kalil, and the many other volunteers for their hard work and dedication which helped to make this event a huge success!
