Let us offer one another signs of reconciliation and love.

There's a sweet, sweet Spirit in this place,

And I know that it's the Spirit of the Lord;

There are sweet expressions on each face,

And I know they feel the presence of the Lord.

Refrain:

Sweet Holy Spirit, sweet heavenly Dove

Stay right here with us, filling us with your love;

And for these blessings we lift our hearts in praise;

Join Us in the Chapel After Service for a Bite, Conversation and Registration

We have put together some tasty snacks and drinks and set aside a time to re-connect with Arch Street friends and greet visitors. We will also have Voter Registration forms for those of you who are not registered or who have moved since you last voted. We can answer your questions and submit your forms for you.

We can also quickly check the votespa.com website on Sunday to see if you are registered. If you haven't voted in a long time you might not be--but we can easily fix that!

Also, you might not know that being registered to vote DOES NOT put you on the jury list. That practice ended years ago.

As Pastor Robin said a few weeks ago--he doesn't usually insist, but he really really wants us all to vote on Nov. 8!

We Will Be Registering Voters at Grace Cafe Tonight-Please Come at 5:00 to Help Us!

Both tonight and Sunday Oct. 2 we will offer our Grace Cafe guests a chance to register to vote. Please join us at 5:00 PM in the upstairs conference room for a quick training and to get your forms and have your questions answered.

We should be done by 7. If you haven't helped get out the vote this election season, these dates may be your final chance.

Contact Betsy Connor at 215-232-7186, betsyfconnor@gmail.com or just show up. We will be glad to see you.

Thank you for supporting POWER in this important work!

The Arch St. United Methodist Women invite you to join us. You do not have to be a member of Arch St. UMC or United Methodist Women to come.

Sunday October 2: Join us for discussion of Dreamers

We invite everyone to join us for a discussion of the book, Dreamers: An immigrant generation's fight for their American dream by Eileen Truax. We will meet in the 2nd floor conference room immediately following the 11 Worship Service

Dreamers* is a movement book for the generation brought to the United States as children—and now fighting to live here legally

Of the approximately twelve million undocumented immigrants living in the United States, as many as two million came as children. They grow up here, going to elementary, middle, and high school, and then the country they call home won't—in most states—offer financial aid for college and they're unable to be legally employed. In 2001, US senator Dick Durbin introduced the DREAM Act to Congress, an initiative that would allow these young people to become legal residents if they met certain requirements.

And now, more than ten years later, in the face of congressional inertia and furious opposition from some, the DREAM Act has yet to be passed. But recently, this young generation has begun organizing, and with their rallying cry "Undocumented, Unapologetic, and Unafraid" they are the newest face of the human rights movement. In Dreamers, Eileen Truax illuminates the stories of these men and women who are living proof of a complex and sometimes hidden political reality that calls into question what it truly means to be American.

Upcoming:

Sunday November 13 (book discussion of Girls of Kabul) and introduction of Advent study

Sunday December 11th- Advent study, led by Wilhelmina Young.

In addition, we invite you to participate in

Saturday November 19: Nationalities Service Center Thanksgiving Celebration and Welcome for Refugees.

Saturday in December (date TBD) Holiday Party for our neighbors, the mother and children residing in the Eliza Shirley Shelter.

See Cathy Simpson perform for free! Yes, really!

Arch Street's own fabulous star of stage and screen, Cathy Simpson, will be performing in Revolution Shakespeare's King John, as part of the Fringe Festival In Hawthorne Park (located at 12th and Catherine) September 21 to October 1st. The performances are FREE and you do not need tickets or reservations.

Politics, Intrigue, Murder, War – this King John is set in a future world after the collapse of civilization. A corrupt “ruling class” has seized power and is now embroiled in a vicious struggle for total dominance. Through the midst of this mayhem strides ‘Philip the Bastard’, one of Shakespeare’s most dashing and delightful characters, who, with a deadly sword and a healthy dose of humor, saves the honor of his country.

The schedule of performances is as follows:

September 25 at 1:00 pm

September 28 at 6:30 pm

September 29 at 6:30 pm

September 30 at 6:30 pm

October 1 at 6:30 pm

You are of course welcome to attend any of the performances, but I am suggesting Arch Streeters join me for the September 30th performance. It would be fun to go together. Bring something to sit on! Questions? contact Margaret Harris at margaretharris@me.com.
