WHAT'S HAPPENING

October 30th is Native American Sunday

Native American Sunday will be presented today at both the 8:30 and 11 am services. Our guest speaker will be Freeman Owle, Members of Arch Street UMC's Native American Group met Mr. Owle at a Cherokee Culture seminar at the Lake Junaluska UMC retreat in North Carolina in August. Mr. Owle, an elder of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians in North Carolina, has told stories and presented on Cherokee history and culture throughout the Southeast for more than 10 years. His audiences have included children, school teachers, executives on retreat, Elderhostel groups, and the general public. He is not only a native stone and wood carver but also an author of the book Living Stories of the Cherokees.

Please join us in Nichols Hall for a special Get Acquainted Time after the 11:00 service.

Pat Taylor will be taking orders for pies to support Manna's Pie in the Sky. You can feel good about doing good. With every pie you buy, MANNA prepares and delivers seven nourishing meals to someone battling a life threatening illness such as cancer, HIV/AIDS, cardiac disease, and more. You can always order online at www.mannapies.org/buyflow/cart.cfm just enter Pat Taylor's name at the bottom under seller. Thanks.

Next week is All Saints Sunday

The Robeson County Church and Community Center in Lumberton, NC was under water due to flood waters from the Lumber River. The Center and the people that work there are well known to Arch Street UMC. For the last eight years, ASUMC Youth have traveled to Lumberton and Pembroke NC to work alongside local leaders on various church and community improvement projects. The Center is the heart and soul of working with the poor of Robeson County – the poorest county in NC. The United Methodist Church is the driving force behind the Center's work. In a conversation, with Pastor Kelly (local leader), he stated that funds and volunteers are desperately needed to clean up and restore the Center so they can resume and upgrade service. The ASUMC Youth are so close to this NC community and ask for your help. Pastor Robin has set a stretch goal of $8,000 to be raised before Christmas. Next Sunday, All Saints Sunday, the fundraising drive will kick off. Gifts can be made to this special cause in honor or in memory of loved ones. Please use the special offering envelop inserted in the bulletin. Checks should be made out to Arch Street UMC with the words Flood Relief on the memo line.

New Sanctuaries Movement

The PA House of Representatives ended their last day of session before the election, and did not vote on HB 1885, the Anti-Sanctuary City bill!

We have successfully stopped this bill for now, but we are not 100% out of the woods. The House has two more days of session in mid-November after the election. These days are typically for ceremonies and picking leadership, not voting. We also expect that after the election, the momentum will fade for this bill. However, we are not fully done until the session formally ends.

Congratulations and a heart-felt thank you to everyone who put so much heart into fighting this very dangerous and racist bill. In the last two weeks, we have moved mountains! We held a Sukkot ritual and an all night prayer vigil; made hundreds of calls to our State Senators and Representatives; organized 225 signatures on a faith leader letter; sent people to MILPA's and Casa's rally in Harrisburg; and had people praying across the city in three different languages.
