WHAT'S HAPPENING

Volunteers Needed TODAY to Decorate

Join us today, following the 11AM Easter Sunday worship to decorate for our Resurrection celebration with Grace Cafe. We need volunteers to help decorate Nichols Hall and fill candy bags for our Grace Cafe guests. See Deaconess Darlene for more information.

Easter Anthem Memorial

The music for the Easter Anthem “At the Name of Jesus,” performed today by the Sanctuary Choir, was purchased by Donald Caskey, Gregory Caskey and Vida Glover in loving memory of their mother, Dorothea R. Caskey. The entire congregation appreciates the thoughtfulness and spiritual impact of this gift! Thank you! Music Director, Adam Haines wants the members and friends of the congregation to think and pray about making additional gifts of music in honor or in memory of special people in your life. Please contact him at adam@mobilemusicphilly.com.

Sowing the Seeds of Transformative Leadership

The Shalom Center honors three activists on Sunday, May 21st, and we invite you to join the celebration. They will honor Bill McKibben (350.org) Bishop Dwayne Royster (PICO and POWER) and Sophia Wilansky (a young anti-pipeline activist) in an event titled “Sowing the Seeds of Transformative Leadership.” The three honorees will be present to speak to their experience building leadership for social justice. All are welcome but space is limited. To reserve your seat, register today at <https://theshalomcenter.org/SowingSeeds>.

Hearts on Fire!

This event will feature ASUMC members: Deaconess Darlene DiDomineck, US-2 Missionary Rachel Ternes and Grace Café Worship Team Member John Buzby

Faithful Christians from around the Eastern PA Conference, whether committed to or just concerned about biblical and Wesleyan values of peace with justice, are invited to gather on Saturday, May 13, at Holy Cross UMC in Reading, Pa from 9am to 3pm. There they will explore and engage hearts and minds in their shared struggles against racism and other forms of oppression. “Hearts on Fire: Stories of Shalom and Social Holiness” is planned as a major learning, networking and mobilizing event, unlike any before it, to create “a diverse network of people connected by story, committed to justice and collaborating for peace.” The theme is inspired by the Apostle Paul’s encouraging admonition in Romans 12:11-13: “Never let the fire in your heart go out. Keep it alive. Serve the Lord. When you hope, be joyful. When you suffer, be patient. When you pray, be faithful. Share with God’s people who are in need. Welcome others into your homes.”

Grace Café

Grace Café (ASUMC’s outreach to folks currently without homes) is open every Sunday through the end of June. After a brief period of faith sharing, those gathered will enjoy a home-cooked meal hosted by Arch Street There are still openings for hosts to bring food and prepare a meal for about 200 people. If you know of a group that would like to assist in this important mission, please have them contact the church office at 215-568-6250 or Darlene DiDomineck at gracecafe Philly@gmail.com Greeters, servers and clean-up crew are needed and always welcome

Sunday School

All those interested in reading, reflecting on and discussing the Bible passages used in each week's sermon are invited to meet in the Chapel every Sunday at 9:45am. The scriptures readings for today's class are Acts 2:14a, 22-32, 1 Peter 1:3-9, and John 20:19-31 readings for NEXT week are Acts 2:14a, 36-41, 1 Peter 1:17-23, and Luke 24:13-35.

A Look at Our Faithfulness

Combined attendance for last Sunday, April 9, 2017 was 137 and Grace Café was 185. Your tithes, gifts and offerings help ASUMC make a difference in our community. Thank you.

Upcoming POWER Events

Philly DA Candidates Forum

Tuesday, April 18th, 6:00–8:00 PM at Arch Street UMC

Philadelphia's leading movement groups fighting for racial and economic justice have joined together as the Philadelphia Coalition for a Just District Attorney and are hosting a forum with the candidates for District Attorney. Come and bring your friends and family to hear from the candidates for this important primary election on Tuesday, May 16th (voter registration deadline Monday, April 17th). Childcare provided, wheelchair accessible, simultaneous translation available.

The following events are part of POWER's "100 Days of Faithful Resistance" and will take place at the POWER office, 1429 N. 11th Street, Philadelphia (two blocks north of Girard Ave., on Septa's Route 23 bus line).

Building Power at the Intersection of Race, Economics and Climate Saturday, April 22nd, 6:00–8:30 PM

Our faith tells us God's creation is threatened by Climate Crisis. We call on PECO to lead the way towards healthy jobs in renewable energy in the places that most need jobs. Learn with people from all backgrounds and faiths how to build power towards the creation of Green Jobs. To register for childcare or for further questions please contact POWER Economic Dignity Strategy Team member Paula Paul (paulajp1012@gmail.com).

Funding the Movement

Tuesday, April 25th, 6:30–8:00 PM

Power equals organized people + organized money. A successful movement for change can't have one without the other. Many of us involved in social justice work are good at asking people to give of their time and talents, but when it comes to asking people to give of their treasure, we get squeamish. We forget that asking people to support our social change work financially is not begging, but rather an invitation to join us in building the beloved community. If we truly want to build sustainable movements and organizations for long-term justice work, if we truly want to be an independent, prophetic voice holding systems accountable, then we need to build our skills in grassroots fundraising and donor organizing.

POWER News — Celebrate a Victory and Then Back to Work!
After 5 years of nose-to-the-grindstone effort, airport workers have voted to unionize. When POWER first focused on the goal of a living wage for subcontracted airport workers, some were making far less than minimum wage. As POWER reported last week, “Philadelphia International Airport is now among the first group of airports in the country to have an overwhelming majority of its subcontracted workers unionized. This major step allows airport workers to push for more dignified working conditions and a living wage with the support of thousands of others fighting alongside them for the same cause.” Solid success like this is why our church members stay involved with POWER (Philadelphians Organized to Witness, Empower and Rebuild).

The Lord is king! Let the earth rejoice;
Let the many coastlands be glad!
Psalm 97:1

ARCH STREET UMC VISION

Arch Street United Methodist Church will be a welcoming Christian community that inspires openness, understanding, healing and reconciliation both within the congregation and in the community-at-large.

ARCH STREET MISSION STATEMENT

Arch Street United Methodist Church's mission is to love God and neighbor by nurturing individuals on their spiritual journeys, encouraging creativity in faithful service, strengthening relationships and promoting justice.

GOD'S TABLE IS OPEN TO ALL.

THERE'S ROOM AT THE TABLE FOR YOU.

Arch Street United Methodist Church is a community of faith-keeping and faith-seeking people who embrace diversity in our congregation and community, and affirm the dignity and worth of every person as created in the image of God. We celebrate and give thanks for all of the gifts of God among us. Our welcome knows no boundaries, whether of age, racial or ethnic background, gender, sexual orientation or gender identity, economic or marital status, or physical or mental ability. We welcome all to share in the ministry, fellowship, and blessings of full participation as members of Christ's body.
