WHAT'S HAPPENING

Observed on the third Sunday of May (to correspond with Aldersgate Day), Heritage Sunday calls the denomination to honor its heritage by committing itself to the continuing call of God known and spread initially by John and Charles Wesley, along with others in the early Methodist movement and eventually here in America.

United Methodists celebrate Aldersgate Sunday to mark the day their founder John Wesley experienced and indeed, felt God's life-changing assurance of his salvation. It is an ideal day for members to reflect on our own faith journeys and what it means to be Christian and United Methodist.

UM Communications offers a short, inspirational video (about 3 minutes long) about that seminal experience. See it and read the transcript at How Aldersgate Changed John Wesley. In the video, the Rev. Fred Day, head of the General Commission on Archives and History and former pastor of Historic St. George's UMC in Philadelphia, explains Wesley's revelation and what it can mean for us today.

Student Appreciation and Choir Recognition Sunday

Sunday, June 4th, is Choir Appreciation and Student Recognition Sunday. Most of ASUMC's 2017 graduates will be in worship that Sunday and will take part in the service. Several of ASUMC's graduates have been featured in recent announcements. Parents, guardians and friends of our graduates are asked to submit information about each graduate so they too can be featured in the What's Happening.

Also on Sunday, June 4, 2017 The Sanctuary Choir under the direction of Adam Haines will be featured and honored for their dedicated service to the congregation. Everyone is encouraged to share with Adam and the choir their personal thanks and appreciation for the beauty and depth of meaning they add to the worship experience at ASUMC.

HEALTH FAIR
SUNDAY, MAY 21
1-4 PM

Grace Café Health Fair

The Grace Café Community will host a Health Fair today. Everyone is welcome to visit the various tables in Nichols Hall where they can access health related services and information. ## What About the Hotel Across from the Church on Arch Street?

Arch Street UMC (ASUMC), along with representatives from The Old First Reformed United Church of Christ, The Ethical Humanist Society and Unite Here have created a community based organization called Center City Organized for Responsible Development (CCORD). We have been meeting for several months and have done research on the hotel development at 101 North Broad Street. The group learned that New Market Tax Credits, a federal subsidy to benefit low income communities, and a state grant have been allocated to the project. In addition, public pension funds are also included in the financing of the project. With such a significant investment of public funds and in particular with the New Market Tax Credit Program, the question arises: how will the public and in particular how will a low-income community benefit from the project?

A community meeting is scheduled for June 6, 2017 (6:30pm) at ASUMC. At the meeting church members and representatives from the community at large will learn more about the hotel's day to day operation, its impact on the community and the community benefit proposed by the developer and hotel operator. Pastor Robin has set a goal of having at least 50 people at the meeting. ASUMC is asked to provide at least 25 of the 50 person total. Please contact the church office to confirm your attendance.

Sunday School

All those interested in reading, reflecting on and discussing the Bible passages used in each week's sermon are invited to meet in the Chapel every Sunday at 9:45am. The scriptures readings for today's class are Acts 1:6-14, 1Peter 4:12-14, 5:6-11, and John 17:1-11. Readings for NEXT week are Acts 2:1-21, 1Corinthians 12:3b-13, and John 7:37-39.

Come see Cathy Simpson in her new show, *Peaceable Kingdom!

You can see Arch Street's own favorite star of stage and screen, Cathy Simpson, in her new show, Peaceable Kingdom, at Christ Church Neighborhood House, located at 20 N American Street. The show is running from May 10 through Sunday May 28. I am planning to go on Saturday May 27 at 7 pm and I would love to have you join me!

The play is a dark comedy about the Quaker settlement of Pennsylvania. Inspired by the famous series by Philadelphia painter Edward Hicks (1780 - 1849), Peaceable Kingdom is a fable about the longing for utopia. In a mythical Quaker colony inhabited by wild creatures both native and foreign to the Americas, the audience is offered a bird's-eye view of two cultures encountering each other for the first time. Peaceable Kingdom is also a warning: an exploration of how ecosystems are impacted by invasive species, be they squirrels, giant cats, or human beings.

Our special rate for tickets are $20 in general and $15 for students. Please let me know right away if you would like to come. Margaret Harris (215-568-2206) or margaretharris@me.com

News and Events

Please read below and choose a quick walk down Market Street, a bus trip to Harrisburg, an education in labor history and future in Philly, and/or a volunteer job on the Rapid Response Team! We need your help.

Tomorrow, Monday May 22, 12:00 noon—Take a lunchtime walk on the solar side! Let's meet outside church at 11:45 AM, then cross the street to meet up with people from POWER congregations and other local organizations to walk down Market St. to PECO (at 23rd St). Or just go straight to City Hall at noon to join the march. We are going to ask PECO for a commitment to solar jobs for Philadelphians and to 20% of electric power from solar energy by 2025. This is the last leg of a total of 100 miles of walking to local examples of "dirty" and "clean" energy in the area.

Wednesday May 24, 7:00 PM—Learn more about the Black Work Matters report and how to organize in your community for the workers in Philadelphia. During the Black Work Matters training you will learn about current economic realities in Philadelphia so that you are better equipped to hold conversations with friends, neighbors, and community members about the importance of standing with workers across the city. The training will be held at Church of St. Martin-in-the-Field, 8000 St. Martins Lane, Philadelphia, PA 19118. For more information, contact Economic Dignity Strategy Team Co-Chair Carol Duncan (carol.duncan8031@gmail.com).

Tuesday May 30, 6:00 PM—Remember when thousands of Philadelphians gathered at the airport with only a few hours' notice to protest the travel ban (that has since been suspended by the courts)? There are so many threats to our causes and our people that POWER is establishing a Rapid Response Team to alert us to urgent issues and what we can do (like show up to protest, write letters, call our legislators). Come to the Rapid Response training to learn how you can help with this important work. The training will take place at the POWER office, 1429 North 11th St., Philadelphia, PA 19122.

Finally, please save the date of Wednesday June 21 to take a POWER bus to Harrisburg. We will join hundreds of other PA citizens to demand that our legislators end the immoral and racist funding of our schools. Fact: if Philadelphia received the funding it is entitled to if all state dollars were fairly distributed, our schools would receive $1900 more per child (!) than we are getting now through a system proven to be racist. To learn more, please watch the 10-minute video by POWER member David Mosenkis, who has been analyzing and reporting on this state-sanctioned racist system. Go to YouTube and search for Racial Bias in PA School Funding (you will see David Mosenkis' name) at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NbVILri7X2A>.

We can make a huge difference together! Please join us.

As always, for POWER-related questions please contact Betsy Connor (215-232-7186, betsyfconnor@gmail.com), Nancy Megley (215-574-8320, nmegley@msn.com), or Wilhelmina Young (215-227-4034, thecatalyst212@yahoo.com).

HELP US HELP ROBESON COUNTY !!

Spring is here and Robeson County Church is hard at work.

For the last eight years, ASUMC Youth have traveled to Lumberton and Pembroke NC to work alongside local leaders on various improvement projects. The Robeson County Church and Community Center is the heart and soul of support for the poor of Robeson County – the poorest county in NC. The Center was under flood waters in the Fall of last year due to Hurricane Matthew. The Center and the people that work there are well known to Arch Street UMC. Currently, the Home Store has been restored but there are other buildings of the center that still need work. Pastor Kelly stated that funds and volunteers are desperately needed to clean up and restore the Center so they can resume all functions. The United Methodist Church is the driving force behind the Center's work and the ASUMC Youth are so close to this NC community they ask for your help. Pastor Robin has set a stretch goal of $8,000. We have collected a little over $3000. Please use the special offering envelope inserted in the bulletin for your gift. Checks should be made out to Arch Street UMC with the words Flood Relief on the memo line. Bless your heart for your generosity.

When my heart is overwhelmed, lead me to the rock that is higher than I.
