It's Not Too Soon to Think about Christmas

Volunteer For our Christmas Party

Every year Arch St. Church hosts a Christmas Party for the Moms and Kids living in the Salvation Army's Eliza Shirley Shelter next door to the church on Arch Street. For years, this party has been organized under the very able and dedicated leadership of Betsy Connor, but this year she has stepped down, so I am asking you to step up so we can once again make it happen.

The date and place are set and on the calendar: Saturday December 9th from 2 to 4 pm in Nichols Hall.

Here are some the ways you can help join in the fun:

- -Bake cookies or brownies to share.
- -Come early on Saturday to help set up and decorate
- -Come to the party and play games, serve food, line dance, and give out presents to Moms and kids.
- -Donate money to help cover costs
- -Stay late after the party to help clean up
- -Invite your friends to volunteer for the day of the party
- -Suggest new ideas to make the party more fun

Please talk to Margaret if you have any questions or to volunteer. I can found sitting near the front of the church near Wilhelmina at the 11 am Worship service, reached by telephone (215-568-2206) or email:margaretharris@me.com

"We've got to Keep Chipping Away"

So says Arch Street UMC member John Buzby while talking about POWER.

John joined many others to chip away at injustice. In the past year he has been to—

- Last January's MLK march which drew thousands and which he found "inspiring and empowering" and got him "fired up to get more involved"
- Harrisburg on a trip to rally for public education that ended with a promise for a very important meeting with a very important politician and impressed on him that "we achieve as a group"
- Voter registration drives at and around church, signing people up to vote
- The recent Aloft Hotel protest where he was surprised to see Pastor Robin among the clergy arrested for demanding that the hotel owners provide the jobs they were paid to provide

As his work schedule allows he is also attending the monthly POWER meetings, drawn by an interest in the newest of POWER's working groups—the Green Jobs Initiative that aims for 20% solar power from PECO by 2025, achieved by hiring Philadelphia residents at a living wage to build the infrastructure.

One final reflection from John: "I feel like I'm doing something important for me and for others. We need to keep chipping away".

Give POWER a try! Watch the bulletin board near the first floor office for opportunities to change lives for the better, including your own!

If you give us your name and email we can alert you to last-minute actions that weren't on the bulletin board or in the Sunday bulletin notices.

Please contact Betsy Connor (betsyfconnor@gmail.com, 215-232-7186), Nancy Megley (nmegley@msn.com, 215-574-8320), or Wilhelmina Young (thecatalyst212@yahoo.com, 215-227-4034) with questions.

“Finding our Way in a Time of Uncertainty and Opportunity”: A letter from the Council of Bishops

November 10, 2017

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Jesus Christ,

Ephesians 4:1-2 admonishes us “to lead a life worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, making every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.”

All of us are witnesses to increased animosity and growing conflict over political, religious and justice issues in many places in our world in word and deed. We believe this serves to threaten our safety and security. In antagonistic discussions about our faithful witness in the world, we may encounter verbal abuse, disruptive behavior, harassing emails, letters and phone messages, and confrontations.

As Bishops of your United Methodist Church, we serve a Church which is diverse in its theological understanding of Scripture and Christ’s call in our lives. Conflict and differing opinions, a natural part of the human and faith experience, come in a variety of forms. We are called to address our differences with authenticity and respectful conversations which enrich our understanding of God and of one another.

In recent months, we have experienced these negative behaviors escalating into more aggressive, and violent expressions of hate, prejudice, and anger directed against others. We are hearing of and observing angry words now escalating to actions that are resulting in fear, anxiety, loss of security, and even physical harm. These actions are repugnant to us as your bishops.

We renew our covenant to one another to lead as a council and in our respective residential areas in ways that reflect our commitment to do no harm, do well, and stay in love with God. We renew this covenant within the Council of Bishops to engage in holy conversation and Christ-like behavior especially when we do not agree with one another. We call upon all United Methodists, even in the midst of disagreement and uncertainty about our future as a church, to do the same, and to love each other as Christ loved us (John 12:34).

In Christ’s shalom,

Bishop Bruce R. Ough,

President

The Council of Bishop
