ACKNOWLEDGING THE 2017 MEMORIAL GIFTS

*THE PASSING OF THE PEACE "Sweet, Sweet Spirit"

Let us offer one another signs of reconciliation and love.

*There's a sweet, sweet Spirit in this place,
And I know that it's the Spirit of the Lord;
There are sweet expressions on each face,
And I know they feel the presence of the Lord.*

Refrain:

*Sweet Holy Spirit, sweet heavenly Dove
Stay right here with us, filling us with your love;
And for these blessings we lift our hearts in praise;
Without a doubt we'll know that we have been revived;
When we shall leave this place.*

CLAIMING OUR HOPE

SCRIPTURE READING

CHORAL ANTHEM: "When the saints go marching in Rutter"

*GOSPEL Matthew 23:1-12

SERMON "I Thought I Knew" Reverend Robin Hynicka

HYMN #2226 "Bind Us Together"

CONFESSION AND PARDON

Merciful God, we confess that we have not loved you with our whole heart. We have failed to be a church that practices biblical obedience. We have not done your will, we have perpetuated injustice, we have rebelled against your love, we have not loved our neighbors, and we have not stood in solidarity with the oppressed. Forgive us, we pray and prepare us to be propelled into the world to present justice, love and peace, in the name of Jesus!

SILENT MEDITATION

Leader: Hear the good news:

Christ welcomes all us even though our sin is still evident and our souls remain open to and in need of the transforming work of the Holy Spirit. God simply loves you! In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven, accepted and included!

People: In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven, accepted and included!

Leader and people: Glory to God. Amen.

OFFERING OF OUR TITHES AND GIFTS

As forgiven, reconciled and unconditionally loved people, let us offer ourselves and our gifts to God.

OFFERTORY “Sonata VIII Sarabande”      Arcangelo Corelli

*OFFERTORY RESPONSE

#94

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;

Praise God, all creatures here below;

Alleluia, Alleluia!

Praise God, the source of all our gifts!

Praise Jesus Christ, whose power uplifts!

Praise the Spirit, Holy Spirit!

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

TAKING THE BREAD AND CUP

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The musical setting on pages 23-24

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to You, Almighty God: Creator of heaven and earth; God of Sarah and Abraham; God of Miriam and Moses; God of Deborah and Joshua; God of Ruth and David; God of Mary and Joseph; God of our Ancestors and God of all generations.

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is The One who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Holy are you, and blessed is Jesus Christ. By the baptism of Jesus's holy hospitality, resistance to injustice, execution by the state and victory through and over it all, you gave birth to the church, delivered us from sin and death and made with us a new covenant by water and the spirit.

On the night of The Last Supper, Jesus took a loaf of bread, broke it, gave thanks and shared it with all those gathered around the table. Later that night, Jesus took a cup of wine and shared it too with his disciples. In sharing the bread and the cup Jesus offered his whole self - body, mind and spirit to the redeeming, reconciling and restoring work of God and invited those around the table at the time and now all of us to be nourished by the bread of life and renewed by the cup of hope. And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a holy and living community in union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here, and on these gifts of bread and wine. Make them be for us the way Jesus is present now to nourish us to embody empathy, compassion, faith, love, resistance to oppression, truth-telling, justice-seeking and peace.

By your Spirit, make us one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world, until Christ comes again, and we feast at your heavenly banquet. Through Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in your holy church, all honor and glory is yours, almighty God, now and forever. Amen.

BREAKING THE BREAD

Because there is one loaf and one cup, we, who are many, are one community of faith for we all partake of the one loaf and the one cup. May the bread which we break and the cup which we drink nourish us to share in the ministry of Christ.

GIVING THE BREAD AND CUP

CLOSING PRAYER

Let us all pray:

Eternal God, we give you thanks for this holy mystery in which you have given yourself to us. Grant that we may go into the world in the strength of your Spirit, to give ourselves for others, In the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

SENDING FORTH

*HYMN                      "For All the Saints"                      #711

**During the singing of the hymn the congregation will light candles in memory of all those saints who inform our lives and inspire our faithful witness in the world.*

Arch St. United Methodist Women's Calendar

Arch Street reads Age of Dignity in November

Arch St. United Methodist Women invite everyone, including men, visitors, curious bystanders, to join us in discussing the book Age of Dignity by Ai Jen-Poo on Sunday November 12, immediately following the 11 am Worship Service, in the second floor conference room. Copies of the book will be available from Margaret Harris at church every Sunday until that date, or until we run out!

Why should you read this book?

In The Age of Dignity, thought leader and activist Ai-jen Poo offers a wake-up call about the demographic reality that will affect us all. “We have more senior citizens in America today than we’ve had at any time in our history,” Poo writes, pointing out that more than 14 percent of our population is now over sixty-five; by 2030 that ratio will be one in five. In fact, our fastest-growing demographic is the eighty -five-plus age group—over 5 million people now, a number that is expected to more than double in the next twenty years. This change presents us with a new challenge: how we care for and support quality of life for the unprecedented numbers of older Americans who will need it.

Despite these daunting numbers, Poo has written a profoundly hopeful book, giving us a glimpse into the stories and often hidden experiences of the people—family caregivers, older people, and home care workers—whose lives will be directly shaped and reshaped in this moment of demographic change. The Age of Dignity outlines a road map for how we can become a more caring nation, providing solutions for fixing our fraying safety net while also increasing opportunities for women, immigrants, and the unemployed in our workforce. As Poo has said, “Care is the strategy and the solution toward a better future for all of us.” From Amazon Review. Hope you can join us on November 12th.

Celebrate Thanksgiving with immigrants and refugees on Saturday November 18th

Each year NSC (Nationalities Service Center), our neighbor at 1216 Arch Street, welcomes newly arrived refugees and immigrants to a Thanksgiving celebration. This year we are once again hosting this wonderful event in Nichols Hall at Arch St. Church, with our own Marge Donnelly preparing the feast in our kitchen. Guests are invited to come between 1:30 and 3:30 on Saturday November 18th. Would you like to

It's Not too soon to think about Christmas- Volunteer for our Christmas Party

Every year Arch St. Church hosts a Christmas Party for the Moms and Kids living in the Salvation Army's Eliza Shirley Shelter next door to the church on Arch Street. For years, this party has been organized under the very able and dedicated leadership of Betsy Connor, but this year she has stepped down, so I am asking you to step up so we can once again make it happen.

The date and place are set and on the calendar: Saturday December 9th from 2 to 4 pm in Nichols Hall.

Here are some the ways you can help join in the fun:

- Bake cookies or brownies to share.
- Come early on Saturday to help set up and decorate
- Come to the party and play games, serve food, line dance, and give out presents to Moms and kids.
- Donate money to help cover costs
- Stay late after the party to help clean up
- Invite your friends to volunteer for the day of the party
- Suggest new ideas to make the party more fun

Please talk to Margaret if you have any questions or to volunteer. I can found sitting near the front of the church near Wilhelmina at the 11 am Worship service, reached by telephone (215-568-2206) or email:margaretharris@me.com

Singing the Body Electric

Igniting Our Physical Vessel

I am a firm believer in the language of the body; we are, effectively, the physical manifestation of our thoughts, so what is inside of us inevitably “shapes” how we present ourselves in the physical world. Come and travel along with me in a voyage of practice, inquiry, and discovery of the connection between thought and deed as we work our way through social dances of the past and present. Through shared learning we will challenge our brains, bones, and belief—in us as individuals, as a group, as a community!

When: November 8/-Wednesday, November 15 – 7 – 8.30 p.m.

Where: Arch Street United Methodist Church – Nichols Hall (lower level)
