  - Economic Dignity: John Buzby joined this year and is excited about the campaign's plans and goals
  - Green Justice: Audra Wolfe has enthusiastically signed on with this new team
- Check the bulletin board in the chapel lobby for the latest information about meetings, trainings, and events
- Visit POWER online at <https://powerinterfaith.org/> and sign up for the biweekly e-newsletter
- Come to POWER's monthly Action Team meetings and quarterly Legislative Assemblies. Next: Action Team on Tuesday, November 14th from 7:00-9:00 PM (6:30 for pizza!) at the POWER office, 1429 N. 11th Street, Philadelphia (two blocks north of Girard Ave. on SEPTA's #23 bus route). Rides from the church are available. ASUMC's POWER Local Organizing Committee will give you a warm welcome when you join us.

Arch St. United Methodist Women's Calendar

Arch Street reads Age of Dignity in November

Arch St. United Methodist Women invite everyone, including men, visitors, curious bystanders, to join us in discussing the book Age of Dignity by Ai Jen-Poo on Sunday November 12, immediately following the 11 am Worship Service, in the second floor conference room. Copies of the book will be available from Margaret Harris at church every Sunday until that date, or until we run out!

Why should you read this book?

In The Age of Dignity, thought leader and activist Ai-jen Poo offers a wake-up call about the demographic reality that will affect us all. “We have more senior citizens in America today than we’ve had at any time in our history,” Poo writes, pointing out that more than 14 percent of our population is now over sixty-five; by 2030 that ratio will be one in five. In fact, our fastest-growing demographic is the eighty -five-plus age group—over 5 million people now, a number that is expected to more than double in the next twenty years. This change presents us with a new challenge: how we care for and support quality of life for the unprecedented numbers of older Americans who will need it.

Despite these daunting numbers, Poo has written a profoundly hopeful book, giving us a glimpse into the stories and often hidden experiences of the people—family caregivers, older people, and home care workers—whose lives will be directly shaped and reshaped in this moment of demographic change. The Age of Dignity outlines a road map for how we can become a more caring nation, providing solutions for fixing our fraying safety net while also increasing opportunities for women, immigrants, and the unemployed in our workforce. As Poo has said, “Care is the strategy and the solution toward a better future for all of us.” From Amazon Review. Hope you can join us on November 12th.

Celebrate Thanksgiving with immigrants and refugees on Saturday November 18th

Each year NSC (Nationalities Service Center), our neighbor at 1216 Arch Street, welcomes newly arrived refugees and immigrants to a Thanksgiving celebration. This year we are once again hosting this wonderful event in Nichols Hall at Arch St. Church, with our own Marge Donnelly preparing the feast in our kitchen. Guests are invited to come between 1:30 and 3:30 on Saturday November 18th. Would you like to help to make sure everyone feels welcome and has a great time? If so, contact Margaret Harris at margaretharris@me.com or 215-568-2206

It's Not too soon to think about Christmas- Volunteer for our Christmas Party

Every year Arch St. Church hosts a Christmas Party for the Moms and Kids living in the Salvation Army's Eliza Shirley Shelter next door to the church on Arch Street. For years, this party has been organized under the very able and dedicated leadership of Betsy Connor, but this year she has stepped down, so I am asking you to step up so we can once again make it happen.

The date and place are set and on the calendar: Saturday December 9th from 2 to 4 pm in Nichols Hall.

Here are some the ways you can help join in the fun:

- Bake cookies or brownies to share.
- Come early on Saturday to help set up and decorate
- Come to the party and play games, serve food, line dance, and give out presents to Moms and kids.
- Donate money to help cover costs
- Stay late after the party to help clean up
- Invite your friends to volunteer for the day of the party
- Suggest new ideas to make the party more fun

Please talk to Margaret if you have any questions or to volunteer. I can found sitting near the front of the church near Wilhelmina at the 11 am Worship service, reached by telephone (215-568-2206) or email:margaretharris@me.com

Thank you.

Singing the Body Electric

Igniting Our Physical Vessel

I am a firm believer in the language of the body; we are, effectively, the physical manifestation of our thoughts, so what is inside of us inevitably “shapes” how we present ourselves in the physical world. Come and travel along with me in a voyage of practice, inquiry, and discovery of the connection between thought and deed as we work our way through social dances of the past and present. Through shared learning we will challenge our brains, bones, and belief—in us as individuals, as a group, as a community!

When: Wednesday, November 8/-Wednesday, November 15 – 7 – 8.30 p.m.

Where: Arch Street United Methodist Church – Nichols Hall (lower level)

Attire: Dress comfortably, ready to move!
