WHAT'S HAPPENING

Many Thanks

Thank You and God Bless You, Everyone!

The entire staff of Arch Street would like to thank the members of the congregation for their Christmas generosity. We wish you all a blessed and happy New Year.

Thanks to all who helped to make The Annual Christmas Breakfast a huge success!

Many, many thanks to everyone who helped purchase, prepare and serve at our annual Christmas Breakfast. The many friends of Arch Street UMC prepared a wonderful breakfast for our many homeless neighbors. Special thanks to our clean-up crew. Your giving and kindness is truly a testament that the spirit of Christmas is alive at Arch Street!

A Look at Our Faithfulness

Combined attendance for last Sunday December 24th was 229. About 280 people attended Christmas Breakfast. Your tithes, gifts, and offerings help ASUMC make a difference in our community. Thank you.

Welcome to Grace Café!

Grace Café (ASUMC's outreach to folks currently without homes) is open every Sunday through the end of June. After a brief period of faith sharing, those gathered will enjoy a home-cooked meal hosted by volunteer groups. 180 people attended last week's Grace Cafe. Today's dinner is provided by Grace Café donations and volunteers. There are still openings for hosts to bring food and prepare a meal for about 200 people. If you know of a group that would like to assist in this important mission, please have them contact the church office at 215-568-6250 or Darlene DiDomineck and Carmen Francesco at gracecafehilly@gmail.com. Greeters, servers and clean-up crew are needed and always welcome.

2018: The Year of the Migrant

As they welcome a new year, Bishop Peggy Johnson asks churches to also welcome wandering sojourners yearning desperately for a safe place to live. She prayerfully asks us to respond with Christ's love to a global crisis of suffering that holds millions of precious lives in its grip:

In the midst of the joyous celebration of Christmas there is a backdrop of suffering around the globe in the form of migrants.

Studies indicate that there are as many as 65 million migrants, immigrants, refugees and displaced people in the world today. More than half of them are under the age of 18.

There are many reasons why people leave their homes, including war, persecution, weather disasters, genocide, and terrorism. For the most part, migrants experience extreme poverty, disease, dangerous travel, unbelievable conditions of hunger, cold, lack of medical attention and sanitation. Sadly, many times they also face hurtful bias and discrimination from the countries that both receive them and reject them.

As the people of God we cannot turn a blind eye to this suffering. I would like for us all to observe 2018 as the “Year of the Migrant” in the Philadelphia Episcopal Area. I ask that every church do at least one thing to help mitigate this global crisis.

Churches can engage in studies about global migration issues. We can speak to our lawmakers about the situation, and even help to settle and welcome migrants and refugees in our areas and communities. Several of our churches are already doing this kind of work, and they could use more help from more donors and volunteers.

Remember that when we help migrants and sojourners in need we are helping Jesus, the Savior whose birth we welcome at Christmas time. Even he and his holy family became refugees in Egypt to escape the terror of murderous King Herod.

Jesus said “I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me....truly I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me.” (Matthew 25:35, 40)

I pray that you and your church will have a heart for this critical ministry. What will your church do in 2018 to reach out, welcome others in, and help with the global crisis among desperate migrants? Please let us know.

“This Year Will Be a Year of Justice”

Those words are the theme for the “Watch Night for Racial Justice” on New Year’s Eve at the newest POWER congregation, Philadelphia Episcopal Cathedral. Just reading those words makes it seem possible. Not that all injustices in education, healthcare, jobs, the criminal justice system, and climate change will be righted, but undoubtedly POWER’s work will build barricades against destructive and divisive forces and move steadily on the path to a “city of opportunity that works for all” (POWER’s unofficial rallying cry).

The Watch Night will be “An Evening of Jazz to Benefit POWER.” At 4:00 PM the music will start, featuring vocalists, pianists, a drummer, and the Clef Club Student Ensemble. A prayer service starts at 7:00 PM. No advance tickets are required. A free will offering will be taken at times throughout the evening. The cathedral is at 19 South 38th St. (University City), Philadelphia. Free parking is available at the lot at 39th and Market Streets.

Please join Arch Street and POWER members for all or part of this jazz and worship New Year’s celebration.

For more information please see the event poster on the bulletin board outside the chapel office.

Please contact Betsy Connor (betsyfconnor@gmail.com, 215-232-7186), Nancy Megley (nmegley@msn.com, 215-574-8320), or Wilhelmina Young (thecatalyst212@yahoo.com, 215-227-4034) with questions and watch the bulletin board near the chapel office for POWER news.
